DEMS CHEER FOR LABOR LAW REPEAL

City Pay Hike Vote Proposed

Police, Firemen Ask Action

Move To Go Over Council's Head

In an unprecedented action, Mansfield policemen and firemen moved today to carry to the people their long-frustrated fight for salary increases. They took the first step in a move aimed at placing on the ballot a request that the voters go over council's head and grant pay raises ranging from 29 to 45 per cent.

Officials estimated the pay increase, if granted, would cost the city's taxpayers $98,300.

A notarized copy of a proposed salary ordinance for the police and fire departments was filed today with City Auditor Paul L. Kelley as the first legal step designed to put the question of pay raise before the voters by initiative in November.

Fire Chief L. J. Steele, who officially announced the decision of the policemen and firemen to ask the people for wage boosts, said the petitions should be ready for circulation by the end of the month. The signatures of 1,135 persons are needed to place the proposed ordinance on the general election ballot.

"We think that council has been slow in giving us consideration," Steele stated.

The proposed pay boosts will increase the annual police department salary expenditures by $39,500 and the fire department expenditures by $58,700.

TWO NEW POSITIONS

The proposed ordinance would create two new posts in the fire department, that of platoon chiefs.

"At the present time," Chief Steele said, "the city is losing the benefit to be derived from attendance at fire fighting schools because there is no one to relieve the chief to allow him to attend such gatherings."

"If I go out of town, the captain at the Central station is in charge of the department and cannot look out for the safety of his crew while he's running the whole department. The platoon chiefs will serve in the same capacity as police captains."

A comparison of the old and proposed salaries (including a $25 a month bonus now being paid) with percentage increases proposed follows:

Police Dept.	New	Old	Incr.
Chief	$400	$275	45%
Captains (3)	360	255	41%
Lieut. (3)	330	240	37%
Plain-Clothesmen	360	255	41%
Identification Officer	360	255	41%
Traffic Officer	360	255	41%
Patrolmen	300	230	30%

Fire Dept.	New	Old	Incr.
Chief	$400	$250	45%
Platoon Chief (2)	360	...	....
Captains (10)	330	255	29%
Firemen	300	230	30%
Electrician	360	255	41%

The petitions will be circulated

Sewer Victim's Rites Arranged

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Funeral services were prepared here today for Garland Suddreth, 50, Columbus, who drowned Monday afternoon in the black waters of the Columbus sewage system.

His body was found floating in the Scioto river yesterday after it had traveled more than four miles through the city's sewers and emerged from an overflow pipe into the river.

Drink Free? You Can't In Kent

KENT—(INS)—From now on, you can't even give away a drink in Kent—without a license, that is.

Kent city council last night banned the giving away of free drinks in a place of business.

The drink-banning ordinance resulted from a case in which a defendant was acquitted when he testified he possessed beer in his non-licensed establishment solely for himself and a friend. The ordinance prohibits liquor of any type from being sold, given away, delivered or dispensed except by authorized permit holders.

Russians Reply To Protests

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin today handed to Secretary of State George C. Marshall Soviet Russia's reply to the bitter U. S. protest against the Berlin blockade.

The soviet answer to a similar British and French protest were also delivered today.

Soviet embassy officials declined to give any hint or the nature of the reply.

But diplomatic informants said the United States, Britain and France had agreed in advance "on any eventuality.

The future three-power course of action, irrespective of the tone of the Russian answer, was said to have been carefully prepared during conferences in London which lead up to dispatch of the three notes nine days ago.

It was thought likely here that the Russians would offer some compromise to the demands for lifting the blockade as a basis for starting four-power talks on all Berlin problems.

INSIST ON ACTION

The American - British - French notes insisted on lifting of the blockade immediately. Officials said that any Soviet plan to continue the transportation curbs would be unacceptable to the three governments, since the physical well-being of 2,400,000 persons in their sectors of Berlin is at stake. The three powers said the blockade was "intolerable."

The state department was not expected to reveal the contents of the Russian reply soon. Among other things, the answer will have to be translated.

Meanwhile the U. S. Air Force was planning today to throw its giant superfortresses into the aerial supply service aimed at breaking the ever-tightening Russian blockade of the city.

Both the American and British air forces were bending every effort to build up the aerial shuttle to Berlin. Yesterday they boosted it to a record 426 flights bringing in 2,047 tons.

Jail Escape Aider Pleads

Virgil Chaney, 29, of Mansfield, R. D. 2, pleaded guilty today in municipal court to conveying saw blades into the county jail to aid in an escape.

He was bound over to the September grand jury under $2,000 bond. Unable to make bond, Chaney was remanded to the county jail.

He is accused of taking six hack saw blades to the county jail on the night of June 12, and attaching them to a wire let out of a window by prisoners.

Prisoners had sawed through an inner set of bars in the jail and had started to work on the bars of the third-tier window before deputies discovered the escape attempt.

Sheriff Frank E. Robinson said Chaney had been released from jail on the day the blades were smuggled into the jail.

Conviction on the charge of conveying instruments to the jail to aid the escape of a felon is punishable by a penitentiary term of two to three years.

30 Missing In Speedboat

LONG BEACH, Calif. —(AP)— A water taxi believed to be carrying 30 persons was unreported today in the channel between Santa Catalina island and nearby Newport harbor.

The speedboat "Leading Lady," owned by Frank Kitz of Newport, left Avalon, at the island, at 8:30 o'clock last night. Its trip to Newport ordinarily would require only about an hour.

The coast guard said it was notified at 3 a. m. today that the craft was unreported. Two cutters began a search of the fog-bound waters.

Ecuador Picks Plaza

QUITO, Ecuador —(AP)—The supreme electoral tribunal says Galo Plaza, former ambassador to the United States, received the largest number of votes in Ecuador's presidential election June 6. Manuel Sotomayor Luna, a conservative, received the largest vote for vice-president, the tribunal said.

FAMILIAR SCENES—These scenes are typical of rural Richland county farms this week as farmers work to harvest a bumper wheat crop. Although little threshing or combining has yet begun, wheat throughout the county is being placed in shock. Top picture shows a scene on the Balgreen-Rigby farm, Marion avenue road. U. N. Will Urge Peace

Arabs, Jews Face Cease-Fire Order

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(UP)—The United Nations security council was expected to send an ultimatum to the Arabs and Jews today, demanding that the hostilities in Palestine cease within 72 hours.

The council called a meeting today for final debate and a vote on the United States formula for achieving a long and perhaps permanent armistice in the Holy Land.

The vote was certain to be close but American officials claimed the necessary majority of seven votes despite vigorous objections from the Jewish state of Israel and the Arab states, and apparent objections on the part of Russia.

Diplomatic sources reported that there was "a good chance" the Arab nations would give ground in the face of the strong security council order and agree to a resumption of the truce in Palestine.

The American resolution, in addition to ordering Arabs and Jews to stop the Palestine war within three days, demands that they arrange a special cease-fire for the city of Jerusalem within 24 hours.

It provided that if Arabs or Jews refuse to stop fighting, the security council must "consider" such further steps as economic sanctions or actual armed intervention against the offending side. The resolution projected the security council for the first time into the punitive sections of the United Nations charter.

Driver Blamed For Death Leap

COLUMBUS — (UP) — An affidavit charging Lawrence Cook, 21, Columbus, with the first degree murder of a girl companion who leaped from his car to her death awaited the signature of deputies today.

Deputies said Ethlen Adkins, 20, Columbus, leaped from a car driven by Cook yesterday about 2:00 a. m. after a two-hour ride and apparently landed on her head.

Early Grain No. 1 Grade

Bumper Harvest Of Wheat Starts

A bumper 1948 harvest of top grade Richland county wheat has started to move into elevators in Mansfield and vicinity. Mansfield elevators reported more than 300 bushels already had been received today but that receipt of the grain had been slowed to a trickle by Monday's hard rain and today's threatening skies.

Threshing of wheat had not yet progressed far enough to indicate the probable yield but, based on a survey made earlier in the season of individual farms in the county, the Ohio Crop Reporting service at Columbus estimated the Richland county crop would average 25 or 26 bushels an acre.

Guy Taylor, Richland county AAA chairman, estimated 746,940 bushels of the grain would be harvested in the county this year.

His estimate was based on average yields for a ten-year period, the reporting service estimate, total wheat acreage, and an estimated 20 per cent increase over 1947 production.

Taylor said Richland county farmers had some 30,000 acres of their land in wheat this year.

The Farmers Equity Exchange elevator at Lucas, the only one in the vicinity with local wheat on hand Tuesday, said the wheat had tested 59 and 60 pounds per bushel. A 60-pound test indicates No. 1 wheat.

$2.10 PRICE LIKELY

Elevator operators said that although no definite price had been set for Richland county wheat, a listing of $2.10 for No. 1 grain was expected. Earliest prices on new wheat quoted last year were between $2.10 and $2.20 on July 25.

The Cleveland Grain company on North Main street reported two carloads of wheat received yesterday from Utica. The company deals only in carload lots from small-city elevators.

Harvest in central Ohio was going full speed late last week and even as far north as Fredericktown, farm trucks and wagons were waiting at the elevators to unload their grain.

Although the expectations of returns of 26 bushels per acre was lower than in previous years, agriculturists explained that there would be more wheat this year because there was more acreage.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture brought forth an estimate for Ohio of 60,000,000 bushels. Other grains, such as corn, oats and barley, were also predicted as "boom" crops this year.

Bastille Day Isn't So Gay

PARIS —(AP)— France observed Bastile Day today in an atmosphere of labor unrest. Walkouts have made 100,000 Frenchmen idle and threatened to affect 1,000,000 government workers

The gloomy labor scene brightened slightly last night when strikers in French airports, who had slowed plane traffic almost to a halt, agreed to return to work. Terms of the settlement were not disclosed.

Premier Robert Schuman negotiated with union leaders to prevent a further spread of the walkouts.

Clamps Ban On Gambling

Sandusky Chief Acts After Board's Order

Public opinion pressure against open, commercialized gambling brought results in one Ohio city today as Mansfield's gaming went ahead undisturbed and a July 5th cafe bombing here continued unsolved.

Results from the mounting pressure against open flouting of anti-gambling laws appeared in Sandusky, Lake Erie shore resort town, where Police Chief Russell A. Thom ordered all gambling closed up.

News reports from Sandusky today stated that Chief Thom instructed police to clamp down and to arrest any violators of the city's "no gambling laws."

ORDERED BY COMMISSION

Action of the police chief followed an order of the Sandusky city commission directing the chief to prepare a written report on alleged Sunday whisky sales and barroom gambling devices. The chief also was asked to report what enforcement action would be taken.

Meanwhile, Mansfield Police Chief Jesse Schwab, continuing his "no comment" policy on Mansfield's open gambling, told a reporter that police are continuing their investigation into the bombing of the Crescent cafe early on the morning of July 5.

The bomb explosion injured two policemen and two firemen who had answered a bomb alarm and were attempting to douse the explosive with water to prevent the blast.

Chief Schwab said his department is continuing its work of tracking down all available clues and "tips," and that no theory of the mysterious bomb planting is being discounted or given any special emphasis.

The chief said that he could not say whether investigators had reached a conclusion on whether the bomb was planted by underworld forces.

Harmony Bid Fails to End Dixie Revolt

(Compiled from Wire Services)

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia—The Democrats cheered today a demand for repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law. It came from James Roosevelt in one of the speeches leading up to the main business—picking a Truman-Barkley 1948 ticket.

The late Franklin D. Roosevelt's eldest son was a surprise addition to the listed speakers. President Truman's forces, in control of the convention, obviously put him on for a purpose. That was to show the closing of ranks behind the President.

Roosevelt was one of those calling last week for nomination of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for president.

But the "harmony" efforts were not making as much progress within southern delegations, sore over the President's civil rights stand and displeased with the proposed party platform.

Arkansas, Tennessee, Georgia, and Virginia, among others, were saying they would not vote for Mr. Truman when the convention got around to the formality of nominating him later in the day.

Alabama delegates were reported ready to walk out of the convention immediately after adoption of the platform, leaving behind a pronouncement that its electoral votes will not be cast for this convention's nominee.

Party leaders were aiming at a schedule calling for a wind-up of the convention tonight after an acceptance speech from President Truman.

There was no argument about giving the vice-presidential nomination to Alben Barkley, 70-year-old Kentucky senator.

Barkley still was not saying publicly whether he is willing to take second place on the ticket. But no one in Convention hall had any doubts.

(International News Service early this afternoon quoted Hugh White, former Mississippi governor, as stating that the states', rights Democrats will hold their own "rump" convention at Birmingham, Ala., this week end. United Press reports indicated that some Southern delegates are pushing a move to nominate Sen. Alben Barkley for president, instead of vice president.)

PRESIDENT READY

President Truman was ready to go to Philadelphia to accept the Democratic presidential nomination.

(Details of the Democratic platform up for approval of the convention this afternoon, appear on Page 13).

Tentative plans called for the President to fly to the convention, deliver his acceptance speech tonight, and return to Washington by train shortly afterward.

However, an authoritative White House source said the weather and the speed with which the convention goes through the formality of nomination will determine whether Mr. Truman makes the trip by plane or train.

He was to be accompanied by his wife and daughter Margaret. A secret service detail already is in Philadelphia preparing for their arrival.

Italian Red Leader Shot By Assassin

Togliatti Alive; Wounds Serious

ROME —(INS)— Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's fiery communist leader and delegate to the Cominform, was shot and gravely wounded today by a 25-year-old fourth-year law student whose assassination attempt touched off violence in Rome.

Despite declaration of a state of emergency, several hundred communists demonstrated in the Piazzo Colonna outside the Chamber of Deputies near the place where Togliatti was shot by Angelo Pallante, who termed his deed a "patriotic act."

Rome's communist-led confederation of labor called a general strike in Rome province. A nationwide walkout is expected.

Togliatti underwent two blood transfusions at Rome's Polyclinic hospital, receiving more than a quart of plasma on each occasion. The chief surgeon, Dr. Valdone, said:

"His general condition is giving cause for concern. I cannot say whether he will pull through."

The demonstrating communists called for immediate resignation of Minister of the Interior Mario Scelba. Police in jeeps broke up the crowd and took up strategic positions in an effort to forestall further violence.

Pope Pius was informed of the assassination attempt at the conclusion of a general audience in the Vatican.

Manifestly shocked, his holiness said:

"We deplore this act. The Church deplores all acts of violence."

The young law student, who readily admitted the shooting and said he had no regrets for a "patriotic act" which he had planned "for a long time," unlimbered four bullets at the communist leader, vigorous opponent of the Marshall plan and the leading oppositionist in the recent Italian elections which repudiated communism.

City Ideal Weather Spot In State

Mansfield was one of the coolest places in the state this morning as CAA weather observers at Municipal airport recorded a low temperature of 66 degrees at 5 a. m. Canton, Zanesville and Youngstown were slightly cooler with recorded temperatures of 62, 63 and 65 respectively.

Indications were that Monday's rains here had also given Mansfield farmers a slight edge on crop conditions over other regions in the state.

In some areas the dry spell posed a serious problem for farmers. The Cleveland region, for example, has had only .06 of an inch of rainfall during July. Normal rainfall there is 1¾ inches.

Forecaster C. G. Andrus forecast little change in temperatures expected and no intense showers likely for several days.

Plan Bomb Tests

PANAMA CITY, Fla. —(AP)— Extensive buzz bomb tests will be carried out off Santa Rosa island July 16 and 22, the Eglin field Air Force base public relations office announced. Civilian and commercial craft were warned to keep clear of the area. Bomb launchings both by sea and air will be under the direction of the air proving ground command.

Prices Reach Highest Peak

NEW YORK—(UP)—The Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., wholesale food price index, hit a new all-time high in the week ending yesterday

The agency reported that its index of 31 foods in general use in the week ended July 13 rose to $7.36 from $7.12 in the preceding week. This compared with $6.52 a year ago. The previous all-time high was $7.28 established last Jan. 13.

Civic Group Launches Tyger Club Campaign

Boosters Ring Up $3,325, Prepare Fall Plans

(Picture on Section Page)

The Mansfield Tyger Booster club sent a bandwagon rolling last night toward the goal of making Senior high school's band and athletic program the best in history and started work on "building" a second bandwagon to complete the job.

At a meeting of the newly-named 21-member advisory committee in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, a group of the town's civic leaders got behind the club's project to expand the athletic and cultural activities program in the city school system. There were these developments:

A total of $3,325 was reported raised by a special gifts committee comprised of James H. Hoffman, T. R. Sammons and Carl Rupp. The three-man flying squad began a campaign following a preparatory meeting last Friday and ran up its pledges and contributions beyond $3,000 in three days. The gifts were from industry, business and a few individuals. The special gifts committee's work is continuing.

Plans were formulated for a drive to bring 8,000 Mansfielders into the Tyger Booster organization in a $1-or-more" membership plan.

A special Booster committee comprised of J. Gilbert Baird, D. H. Hughes and J. Merton Holcomb, named to work out plans for half-time entertainment at football games, met after last night's advisory meeting and drafted plans for their operations. This group's work will include purchase of "black light" display equipment for the band, and purchase of other equipment to bring Mansfield's band entertainment potential up to the level of the best high school music organizations in the state.

Dr. D. A. Weir, who with Hank Richards and E. E. Davis head the general membership committee, conferred after the general meeting and mapped plans for their "bandwagon No. 2" effort in August.

Carl Rupp, advisory board and special gifts committee member, announced plans for a softball game at the Gorman-Rupp field from which all proceeds will be turned over to the Booster fund. A crack out-of-town team will be brought in for the game.

A goodwill committee on athletic teams and bands also organized and prepared for its work. Pete Zeides and Ed Channell are committee chairmen and D. H. Hughes is a third member.

Objectives and plans for the Tyger Boosters were gone over by the committee in a discussion led by Arthur L. Glattke, president, and John Schroeder, co-ordinator of operations.

Wartime Union Fees Put Millions In Hands of U. S. Labor Leaders

NEW YORK—During the war, the "membership" of the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union rose to more than 300,000. There were seasonal fluctuations. In winter, when government construction was curtailed, the rolls would shrink by more than 100,000 head from the fair weather maximum. The standard initiation fee was $50. The local unions kept $45. The other $5 went to the international headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Actually "membership" was a poetic term. When a contractor set up his shanties to start making a road or ditching for the Big Inch, the bosses of the regionel local set up shop, too. They demanded an "initiation" fee of $50 from each farmer, miner or other applicant for pick-and-shovel work.

The custom was to permit the stiffs to pay this at the rate of $5 or $10 a week. Then they were initiated." They might be canned so that new suckers could be taken on and "initiated."

The contractors in these lines are no better than the union Mob. By collusion, they add to their bids the cost of the union shakedowns. The ultimate consumer, usually the taxpayer in the last 15 years, pays the cost.

On the war "projects" the working citizen had no chance. The employer often was a thief, adding the union graft to the cost of his "project" and thus fattening his own income. If he wasn't crooked he had to submit anyway. The union was historically and currently verminous with underworld rodents. And the government pugnaciously protected this racket as a "gain" for "labor."

On some big jobs, the price of a permit or "initiation" fee to an ostensibly free American citizen was as high as $300 in certain crafts. Eleanor Roosevelt testified that she thought this must be exceptional. It never was possible to know whether she was being naive or being sly.

The government granted the unions the closed shop or permitted the contractors to make closed shop agreements. The United States Employment service published ads at public expense beseeching citizens to leave their homes and take urgent war jobs far away. They usually contained this proviso: "Must be union member or willing to join."

Even when the government published really hysterical appeals for electricians to go to Knoxville and immure themselves in the atomic bomb job at Oak Ridge, the union's rake-off was the first consideration. They had to be members or willing to join.

Few citizens understood then or know now that the money was the private income of small local unions, except the minor share which they had to forward to their parent or international unions.

★

It belonged to the small resident membership, dominated by a few union bosses. At a glimpse ,the union war extortion from the people was the greatest racket in the history of the institution of graft and most of it was legally taken. Edward McGrady, an old pressman who retains his card although he has been a laborer for the government and for private industry for many years, remarked to me one day at the height of this carnival: "You estimate the union rake-off at one thousand million dollars a year. Some of the union experts think it is twice that."

Red Cross Again Elects Elias Head

Eckert Renamed Chapter Treasurer

Frank Elias, president, and Dean Eckert, treasurer, were re-elected to their respective posts by board members of the Richland county chapter of the Red Cross yesterday afternoon.

Frank Berkey is the newly-elected vice-president, succeeding Robert Black. L. L. Mishey was elected secretary, taking over that post from Mrs. Leta Maxwell.

The slate of candidates was submitted to the board by William Mead, chairman of the nominating committee.

It was also announced that Mrs. Stuart M. Weaver had been appointed as volunteer chairman of the blood donor program. The committee under Mrs. Weaver's chairmanship will be re-organized and plans made for enlarging its scope of service.

Home Service during the past two months completed the checking of 15 service men whose bodies were to be brought back to America for burial. Each case required a search for the next-of-kin of World War II dead and obtaining from them the properly completed forms necessary in making burial disposition of the remains of the deceased.

Reports of the national convention held recently in San Francisco were given by Mrs. Bess Augsburger, executive secretary, and Black, delegates from the Mansfield chapter.

Nine Take DAV Offices

Nine new officers will preside at the July 19 meeting of Mansfield chapter, No. 21, Disabled American Veterans.

Installed Monday night by Fifth District Commander Robert Brown of Sandusky, they are: Gene Sutton, commander; Lawrence Powell, jr., senior vice commander; Kenneth Layland, junior vice commander; Harry Honse, treasurer; Ray Arnold, chaplain; Lawrence Geary, sergeant - at - arms; and Hershel Mapes, chairman of the executive committee.

Honse was appointed chapter service officer and Robert E. O'Leary as adjutant by Sutton.

Honse will be at the chapter offices, 102½ North Walnut street, every day from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. or by appointment, to assist any veteran of the Mansfield area with his bonus claim. Membership in the DAV is not required for assistance in the claims.

Commander Brown, in an address to the lodge members, emphasized the need for a non-government organization to handle many problems facing disabled veterans. He pointed out that the DAV is performing a service the Veterans' Administration cannot perform in that the DAV assists the veteran in filing his claim for compensation for war-incurred disabilities and for such other benefits to which he may be entitled.

Crash Hurts Elderly Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Altman's Condition 'Fair'

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. G. Altman, 12 John Long street, were reported in "fair" condition in New Castle (Pa.) hospital today. They have been in the hospital since Monday as the result of an auto accident.

The Altmans, 50-year-residents of Mansfield, were vacationing in Pennsylvania.

The New Castle News reported that the Altman car collided head-on with one driven by August Huba, 34, of Lyndora, Pa., approximately one-fourth mile east of New Castle at 4 p. m. Monday.

Altman, 79, suffered a possible fracture of the left knee and shoulder and lacerations of the forehead. Mrs. Altman, 76, suffered a fractured jaw and fractures of the right shoulder and right knee.

Huba and his wife, Mary, were treated for minor injuries at the Jameson Memorial hospital in New Castle and released.

Ex-Resident Dies In Canton

Mrs. Ruth Cotter Rainey, former Mansfield resident, will be buried tomorrow in Beaver, Pa. She died Tuesday morning in Shadyside hospital, North Canton, O., after a three-month illness.

Daughter of the late C. D. and Elizabeth Cotter of Mansfield, Mrs. Rainey lived here until her marriage in 1911. She was a graduate of Mansfield high school and Ohio Wesleyan university and was a past president of the Women's club of Beaver, Pa., where she resided until 1947 when she moved to Canton.

Mrs. Rainey leaves her husband, Lloyd B. Rainey; two sons, Lloyd B. jr. of Sewickley, Pa., and David C. of Wheeling, W. Va.; a brother, W. Lee Cotter of Akron and four grandchildren.

Funeral services at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow will be held in the Wilson funeral home in Beaver.

Parks Plan Pet, Hobo Contests

Pet shows will be held this week at all city parks except Johns park as part of the summer recreation program, City Recreation Director Stan Kamen said today. A hobo contest will be held at Johns park instead.

Theme of next week's activities will be a circus program complete with a menagerie and clowns. Dogs, cats, rabbits and the like will make up the menagerie while the clowns will be fitted out from mother's and dad's old clothes.

Mansfielder's Brother Dies

Albert H. Miller, 67, died yesterday at his home in Jefferson Island, Mont., after a short illness. He is the brother of Mrs. Lee Farmer of 675 Arlington avenue.

Mr. Miller is survived by his wife, two daughters and one son, all of Jefferson Island; four brothers, and five sisters.

Funeral services will be held at Jefferson Island tomorrow afternoon.

Summer Festival Scheduled Friday

The Home Community committee of the Richland county farm bureau will hold a summer festival Friday at 6 p. m. at Liberty park. The festival will be for the benefit of the Richland Rural Life center.

The committee said a complete meal could be purchased at the festival. Everyone is invited to attend.

P. O. Route Changes To Be Made Friday

Curtis L. Ford, acting postmaster, reported plans completed today for the major revision of city and rural mail delivery routes which go into effect Friday. The changes will affect at least 13,000 residents.

Notices are still going out to individual patrons who may need specific instructions on particular roads, streets, and box locations to help them comply with the service requirements under the new set-up.

"Naturally there will be some confusion at the start and mistakes will be made. However, we feel confident that the public will cooperate and give us a reasonable chance to get things running smoothly," Ford added.

Since the revision will alter all of the present city routes and five of the six rural routes, it will materially affect the job of distributing mail to carriers as well as the actual delivery work.

REARRANGE EQUIPMENT

As soon as carriers leave on their last delivery trip Thursday additional carrier cases will be installed in the workroom. Equipment will be rearranged and employes will start working the mail according to the new distribution for Friday deliveries.

The route and service changes starting Friday should result in improved delivery service to patrons, Ford said. But further changes and extensions may be necessary to handle the ever-increasing volume of mail rapidly enough to meet delivery schedules at all times.

If the present setup is not adequate, additional auxiliary routes are being contemplated to keep pace with the increasing load.

After the new routes are in operation long enough to be inspected and improved, the post office will be able to submit other proposed changes. A number of requests for extension of both city and rural routes are on file.

They include petitions from residents of part of Little Washington road, Reed road, Ridge road, North Smith avenue, and Laver road. Ford said he expects soon to submit these petitions to the Post Office department in Washington, and hopes they all will be approved.

4-H CLUB MEETS

Members of the Merry Twelve 4-H club discussed their health project at a meeting at the home of Darlene McLaughlin. One visitor was present. The club meets tonight at the home of Gloria Zourb.

Taxpayers Like Box

Richland county taxpayers have been making use of a special box for receiving tax payments after closing hours, County Treasurer Charles C. Payne reported.

Payne said an average of 15 to 20 envelopes containing tax payments had been deposited daily in the box on the inside of the county treasurer's office door.

A slot on the door permits depositing of payments in the box. There are envelopes on a shelf outside the door for enclosing the tax statement and check or money.

Payne said the office would be open Saturday to 4 p. m. instead of noon. Last day for paying is Tuesday.

The sum of $57,479 in real estate taxes was collected yesterday, bringing the total over the halfway mark. The total now is $558,176, with $1,012,000 due.

Six Men Attend Reserve Camp

Six Mansfield men, all members of the Second Army Organized Reserve Corps, are spending two weeks of active duty training at Fort Knox, Ky. They left Sunday.

The men, under the command of Capt. Robert N. Flynn, Mansfield, are Capt. Gerald F. Dent, 137 Willow street; S/Sgt. Robert J. Steele, 555 Lida street; Sgt. Arthur W. Zerby, 169 Home road; T/5 Thomas W. Carpenter, 3 Anna street, and Pfc. Van L. Grafmiller, 518 Woodland avenue.

All are members of Battery B, 908th Field Artillery battalion, with headquarters at Hanger No. 7, Mansfield Municipal airport. Members of other organizations in the Mansfield area will attend summer camp for two weeks at intervals throughout the summer.

BIGGEST THRILL—

Harold Snyder, courthouse janitor, has been fishing five years, but he got his biggest thrill Monday night, just after the storm. He and his son, George, went fishing at Charles Mill dam. His first cast netted him a bite, but no fish. His second cast got him a 14-inch crappie. With the third cast he came up with an 11-inch crappie. The fourth cast netted him a 12-inch crappie. Altogether, he got five. His son got 10 smaller ones, but not one right after the other.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—

Dick Van Voorhis is celebrating his seventeenth birthday today. Dick, son of Mrs. Jane Shearer of 422 Springmill street, is a junior Rotarian, a member of St. John's young peoples group, and will be business manager of next year's Senior High school annual. Dick will celebrate his birthday by going to Columbus tomorrow.

NO DANCE FLOOR—

There'll be no dancing at the YWCA tonight because carpenters are busy laying new hardwood floors. The weekly Junior High frolic scheduled for tonight had to be cancelled because there's no place for the teenagers to dance. The new floors are being laid in all the downstairs rooms except the kitchen.

Free Tuition Might Cause Bloom Boom

LANCASTER — (INS) — Tiny Bloom township, centering around Lithopolis, northwest of Lancaster, is anticipating quite a boom in its population today.

The reason: Every 1948 high school graduate of the township is offered a free college education. And the free scholarships may continue for some years to come.

An Ohio heiress has left a fund to the Wagnalls Memorial with which trustees have offered $300 a year to each of the township's 18 high school graduates.

Mrs. Mabel Wagnalls Jones, heiress to the Adam Wagnalls dictionary fortune, established the memorial for the education of the youth of the township on her death in 1946. She left two and a half million dollars to finance the project.

The trustees offered only two provisions to the offer. The student must enroll in an accredited college or university and must demonstrate that the money is not being squandered.

'Y's' Little Women Camp

"Y's Little Women" is the name the 56 girls enrolled in the 10-day YWCA daytime camp have chosen for themselves.

The camp opened Monday at the association building and will continue from 9 a. m. to noon Monday through Friday through July 23.

Campers attend an assembly period from 9 to 10 a. m., swimming in one of two classes held from 10 to 11 a. m. and 11 a. m. to noon at the YMCA, and participate in crafts and other activities at the YWCA.

Friday there will be a picnic at noon in the YWCA yard. Campers will bring their own lunches and the "Y" will furnish chocolate milk.

Several Seek Job As Agent

OSU Trustees To Fill Post

Otto Croy of the office of the director of extension service in Columbus, reported today that several candidates are under consideration for the job of Richland county extension agent.

Croy, supervisor for Richland and 26 other counties in northeast Ohio, said his office would not make a recommendation until he confers with County Agent George B. Ganyard.

Ganyard, now attending a special course at the college of agriculture of Colorado university is expected back within several days. He has resigned, effective Sept. 1, to take the post of county agent of Franklin county. He has been Richland county agent since 1934.

Croy explained that his recommendation when made will be presented to the Richland county extension council for approval. The candidate's name then will be presented to the board of trustees of Ohio State university.

BOARD NAMES AGENT

That board makes the appointment. County agents on appointment become faculty members of the university, but work in the counties.

Requirements for the position, Croy said, include:

The candidate must be a graduate of an agricultural college.

He must have farming experience or experience as an agent or associate agent.

Croy said an attempt would be made to have a successor named at least two weeks before Ganyard leaves in order that the new agent will be able to acquaint himself with the job here.

Salaries of personnel in the office extension service are paid out of federal and state funds. Office expenses are paid out of county sources.

Ag Society Will Meet

The Richland County Agricultural society will meet Monday at 8 p. m. in common pleas courtroom, Lewis L. Rinehart, chairman, announced today.

Rinehart said additional plans would be made for the Richland County Junior fair.

Other business includes reports from committees in charge of building repairs at the Fairgrounds. Rinehart said he expects that the improvements will be completed in time for the Junior fair.

Improvements include repairs to buildings, painting, and plumbing repairs.

Ashlander In Mishap

DETROIT—A 63-year-old Ashland man was in serious condition today from injuries suffered in a headon collision on U. S. Route 24 near Detroit that killed one person and injured seven others.

Frank Hemminger, of Ashland, was injured when the auto driven by Howard Hemminger, crashed into a car driven by Joseph H. Camp, 51, of Swanton, O. Mrs. Howard Hemminger, 60, of Flat Rock, Mich., was killed outright.

Camp suffered a fractured leg and head injury.

Others injured were Mrs. Lillian Valrance, 75, of South Rockwood, and Mrs. Carolina Kress, 66, of Trenton, Mich.

Frank Hemminger was injured internally. Mrs. Valrance suffered fractures of both legs and a hip, and Mrs. Kress suffered a pelvic injury.

All were confined to the Wayne county, Mich., General hospital.

Boy, 14, Missing Since Monday

Mrs. Carl Rutan, 409 Wayne street, reported to police yesterday that her son, Dale, 14, had been missing since 10 p. m. Monday. She said she believed her son was accompanied by a 14-year-old Buffalo street youth.

The Rutan boy was described as five feet, two inches tall, having blue eyes and brown hair, weighing 110 pounds and wearing overalls and a blue shirt. Mrs. Rutan said the two boys left on their bicycles.

Youth, 17, Undergoes Fifth Operation to Save His Eye

Donald Zents, 17-year-old Dudley avenue youth, seriously injured last Nov. 7 in a metal explosion at the Roget Castings company plant, was reported today "recovering very nicely" from the fifth eye operation at Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus.

The youth lost an eye when molten metal splattered over his face and chest at the plant. He will undergo several more operations to restore the sight of the other eye.

However, the plucky youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Zents, 288 Dudley avenue, is planning to begin studies at Chicago Television school in January after the operations are completed. Zents was graduated last June with his Senior high classmates.

Company officials said, at the time of the explosion, that the accident was believed caused by a pocket of gas or moisture formed in the hot metal.

A companion of Zents at the time of the explosion, Greyson A. Wood, 20, of 429 Lily street, suffered less serious burns on the head and face. Wood was released from General hospital five days after the explosion.

Yanks' Vic Raschi Batting, Hill Hero

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

ST. LOUIS—(INS)—American league persecution of the Nationals became a hammerlock hold today, thanks to a big wind, a relatively obscure bit player, and an old New York Yankee custom.

It all had to do with Victor Raschi, sophomore Yankee righthander who, in his first all-star game, pitched and batted the Americans yesterday to a 5 to 2 victory over the Nationals, their 11th triumph in 15 all-star encounters and their sixth in the last seven midseason classics.

The big wind blew in over Sportsman's park in St. Louis, and reaching the proportions of a gale as the Nationals, trailing 5 to 2, loaded the bases with two out in the top of the sixth inning.

At the plate, Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn took one look at the wind blowing against him—and realized that for him, a left handed hitter, any kind of distance hit would be impossible.

So Ashburn choked his grip ever so slightly on the bat, prepared to chop to left field. And with that Raschi wrapped a roundhouse curve under his wrists for the called third strike that ended the Nationals' threat.

Raschi had the old New York custom, too. He hit when he had to. It was his single off Johnny Schmitz, the Chicago Cub lefthander, that broke a 2-2 tie in the last of the fourth, chasing across two runs.

Gone from the starting lineup because of injuries were Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, George Kell and Hal Newhouser. And although the American league was official host team, the 34,009 crowd was solidly behind the underdog Nationals.

This became only too apparent when Stan Musial of the Cardinals belted a 400-foot homer off A. L. starter Walt Masterson with Ashburn on base in the first, giving the visitors both their runs and putting them off to a 2-0 lead.

Hoot Evers' home run off Ralph Branca got one run back for the Americans in the second, and two walks, a double steal on which National league Third Baseman Andy Pafko looked sleepy, and an outfield fly tied the count at 2-all in the third.

Schmitz came on to pitch the fourth and, after ridding himself of the first man, yielded successive singles to Ken Keltner and George McQuinn, then walked Birdie Tebbetts to load the bases.

It was at this juncture that Raschi, who pitched the fourth, fifth and sixth innings for the Americans, authored his two-run single to left. Then DiMaggio pinch-hit a fly ball off Johnny Sain, and Tebbetts came home from third after the catch with the Americans' final counter.

Williams and Newhouser appeared, too, if briefly; the former as a pinch-hitter who walked against Ewell Blackwell, the fourth N. L. pitcher, and the Detroit pitcher as a pinch-runner for him. Kell didn't get to see action.

The Americans were outhit, 8 to 6, but they were defensively stronger at the finish than at any other time. Philadelphia's Joe Coleman mopped up and didn't allow a National league hit in the last three innings.

The big wind brought thunder clouds with it, and by the top of the ninth rain was pouring onto the playing field in torrents. It made everybody look forlorn—the Nationals a little more so.

MUSIAL HOMERS—Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cards crosses home plate after hitting a home run in the first inning of the All-Star game at St. Louis, driving in the only runs the National leaguers made. He is congratulated by Ritchie Ashburn, Philadelphia (1) and Johnny Mize, New York (15). Ashburn scored ahead of Musial.—(International)

Sport Center Loses 1st To Herman Colts

Ohio Sport Center fell from the ranks of the undefeated in the Hot Stove Major league yesterday as it dropped a 7-3 decision to Joe Miller's Sons of Herman Colts.

The Colts moved into the league lead with three victories against two wins for Zitzer's which drew a bye. Neither team has been defeated.

K. of C. notched its first win in yesterday's other game, pasting Yuncker's by a 10-1 score. Kindt, K. of C. catcher, blasted a 330-foot home run with two men on in the sixth inning.

GET 3 IN 7TH

In Junior league games yesterday, Carpenter Busses rapped the Elks club, 16-1, and Exchange club got three runs in the last of the seventh to defeat the Marine Corps 6-5.

Larry Zartman continued to be the leading figure in the Elementary league as he hung up his ninth pitching victory over Bowman, 11-8. He allowed six hits and struck out nine.

Other elementary games went to Rebecca Grubaugh, 5-2, over Bushnell, and Newman, 6-2, over St. Peter's.

Gorman-Rupp Splurge Wins At Sandusky

SANDUSKY — Mansfield Gorman-Rupp pushed over two runs on two hits in the top of the eighth inning here last night to defeat host Auburn's Night club, 4-2.

Manager Nick Weber got the big hit of the inning, a double which scored Pete Campbell from second base. Campbell had led off the inning with a single and been sacrificed to third by Wayne Hough. Gorman-Rupp added an extra run when Weber took third on an error and came on Bill McCarrick's fly.

BUILD UP LEAD

Auburn's had tied the game in the sixth inning on Balconi's home run with a man aboard. The Mansfielders built up an early lead with single tallies in the first and fourth frames.

Gorman-Rupp will take the night off tonight but tomorrow will travel to Willard for a North Central Ohio Inter-City league game. Friday they entertain the Henry M. Ryder team of Lakewood under the light here.

Substitute Arnie Adams Paces N-J Golf League

Arnie Adams, playing as a substitute for Jerry Rosenberg, fired a two-under-par 34 to pace the News-Journal A Golf league at Possum Run yesterday.

Adams' par breaking performance was good enough to beat Pete Thoma who fired a 37, and keep Blue Goose from the league lead. PD's Bar and Flexible Conveyor are tied with the Taverns for the lead and both tied for medal point yesterday. They will have a chance to pick up the point in next week's play.

Al Hager and Ray Malaska had played their match off last Friday with Malaska firing a 32, which is one stroke away from the course record for the inside nine. Hager shot a brilliant three under par but lost the match.

Bernie Mathias and Ed Blonston played their match in even par figures with Mathias winning on one extra hole. Another extra hole match saw Dick Gaubatz defeat Hen Miller in three extra holes.

PD's, Blue Goose and Flexible Conveyor all have six points, followed by Ideal Billiards, Myers Supply and Penn Auto with four Orr Typewriter, three, and Smokehouse two.

Komito's Softball Team Wins 5th, 11-1

Komito's Clothes racked up its fifth straight victory in the Independent softball league yesterday by drubbing Penn Auto, 11-1, at Prospect park.

Kenny Windsor turned in another fine pitching job for Komito's, allowing only four hits and striking out 11 batsmen. He also banged out two doubles in four trips.

Three home runs gave Windsor ample batting support. Johnny Hallabrin, Joe Lesch and Les Myers each belted four-base wallops as well as a single apiece. Komito's scored six times in the third inning and was never in trouble thereafter.

Ohio Sport Center and Greystone, only other teams in the league since the withdrawal of American Legion Post 72, both held byes.

Ohio Brass Nine Wins Fifth Tilt In Girls' League

Ohio Brass increased its winning streak to five straight in the Girls' softball league last night by defeating Lumbermens, 22 to 3.

Five players cracked three hits apiece to lead the Brass 22-hit attack.

The second-place Tappan Stove team had only eight players and forfeited to Westinghouse. It was the first victory of the season for the Westies.

Indians Meet Brooklyn 9 In Benefit Game

CLEVELAND —(AP)— The Cleveland Baseball Federation is expecting its "best of all amateur days" when two pro teams, the Cleveland Indians and Brooklyn Dodgers, meet before a predicted crowd of 60,000 at the stadium tonight.

Rex Barney, a wild right-hander who fanned 11 Indians as the National league champions won a previous exhibition tilt at Brooklyn, is slated to hurl for the Dodgers in the finale of two sandlot benefit games.

Manager Lou Boudreau of the league-leading Indians, fresh from participation in the American league's all-star victory, has named Steve Gromek to start for the Redskins.

Some 46,000 advance tickets have been sold for the contest, with a crowd of nearly 60,000 expected to pay its way into the stadium, said C.B.F. President Bill Duggan.

BEST OF ALL

"It'll be the best of all amateur days here," Duggan declared, "and most of the credit should go to "Indians President Bill Veeck, who is doing one of the finest things possible for the Cleveland sandlotters."

Duggan said the C.B.F. hoped to receive some $50,000 from the game, or more than twice the total ever netted previously in the annual event for the benefit of the sandlotters' medical and uniform fund.

Edgar (Special Delivery Jones, Cleveland Browns football star who received a baseball trial with the Indians this spring, will hurl in a sandlot game preceding the Brooklyn-Cleveland pro contest.

Catcher Roy Campanella of Brooklyn and outfielder Larry Doby of Cleveland, two Negro players bidding for major league stardom, made previous amateur day appearances here as members of all-star teams. Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson and Cleveland's Satchel Paige, the other two Negroes active in the majors, also are expected to play tonight.

Ad Men Win

The News-Journal advertising department defeated the editorial department "no-stars" in an exhibition softball game last night at the Farm Tools field, 11 to 8.

Night Games Listed For G-R Field

The Mansfield softball spotlight tonight will shine on the night double-header at the Gorman-Rupp field.

A Girls' league game between Lumbermens and Westinghouse at 6:15 p. m. will open the program with Sons of Herman battling Moose lodge in the Class A Club league finals at 8 p. m. The feature tilt will be a return encounter. Moose lodge, second place team, won the first meeting, 7 to 3.

SEEKS NINTH

Completing tonight's league schedule will be the regular four-game slate in the Industrial league. The league-leading Farm Tools aggregation goes against Dominion Electric at North Lake park. The Toolmen, defending champions, have won eight straight including a 18-to-0 victory over Dominion.

The remainder of the schedule follows: Mansfield Tire vs. Ideal Electric, Prospect park; Mansfield Plumbing vs. Telephone company, Johns park and Tappan Stove vs. Cole's Tool and Dye, Liberty park. Tappan is second in the league with five wins in six games.

Big Olympic Party Sails Today

By CHARLES A. GRIMICH

NEW YORK —(AP)— U S Olympic teams in a star-spangled party of 304 athletes coaches and managers shove off today for the games of the first post-war Olympiad in London, July 29-Aug 14.

They sail at 3 p m on the U S liner America under the floating Olympic flag hoisted amidships in ceremonies similar to those which sent off the last pre-war Olympic contingent to Berlin in 1936.

This boatload of talent ranging in character from experts in footracing to weight-lifting from fancy diving to pistol marksmanship represents 15 of the 21 American Olympic teams.

The other six U S teams are either already overseas, are going by air or are leaving on the British liner Queen Elizabeth tomorrow.

Among the last scheduled to go aboard were the 65 male track and field performers. They were called to Randalls Island stadium for a night final workout on American soil in the forenoon under the eyes of their nine coaches and managers.

At the head of the whole American setup was Avery Brundage of Chicago the veteran sachem of U S amateur sports.

Brundage after a last-minute check of American prospects, said things looked pretty good.

Brundage made it clear that although the American Olympic budget has not been met, none who qualified for the teams in the American trials will be left at home.

The last official money count showed $80,000 short of the $512,000 estimated as needed for the travel, care and feeding of a total of 341 competitors and 59 coaches and managers.

Brundage said thousands of dollars had come in since then, assuring the tail-end qualifiers that they can forget their worries and come on board.

Sport Center Wins In Meet

MT Vernon—Ohio Sport Center of Mansfield eliminated Marion Creamery froh the Mt. Vernon Invitational softball tournament here last night, 14 to 0.

Dale McKinley, the Sport Center pitcher, almost entered the hall of fame last night McKinley had a no-hitter for six innings but was touched for a pair of blows in the seventh. He struck out 13.

Sport Center plays the Utica Merchants in its next tournament game Friday at 8 45 p m.

Mansfield Offered Ohio 'Am'

Al Hager, Dale Rose In Tourney

Mansfield's Westbrook Country club was today offered the 1949 Ohio Amateur golf tournament if it wants it.

The offer was made to the Mansfield contingent playing in the tournament which enters match play today over Dayton's Miami Valley links. No official offer had been received at the club this morning.

The tournament would bring over a hundred of the state's top amateurs here for a week of play.

Meanwhile two Mansfield men were among the 64 which qualified for the opening round of match play. They were Al Hager who shot a 74-75—149 in the first two days of play and Dale Rose who fired 77-74—151.

MANSFIELD PAIRINGS

Hager was to meet Mel Lehr of Dayton who qualified with 73-80—153 over his home course. Rose will meet Zanesville's 19-year-old star, Bobby Rankin who carded 71-74—145.

Only one set of 18 hole matches was scheduled today while tomorrom the group will play a match in both the morning and afternoon.

Dayton's Bobby Servis, favorite and five-time champion, led the 36-hole qualifier with 140 strokes, two under par. He was to meet Bob Ross of Springfield, a 149 scorer.

Maurice McCarthy of Cincinnati, three-time champion who just got under the qualifying wire with 152 but is favored to win over Jones of Youngstown, who fired 146. Servis and McCarthy will meet in tomorrow morning's feature match if they both win today.

WINS CROWNS

Back in 1927 McCarthy almost defeated Bobby Jones in the national amateur. The next year he won the national intercollegiate and the New York metropolitan titles. He moved to Cleveland in 1934, and that year tangled with Servis, then 19-year-old defending champion, in the Ohio amateur finals. McCarthy won 9 and 8.

Servis, who started firing in this tourney as a 14-year-old, tangled with McCarthy again in the 1936 finals, turning the tables with a one-up victory in 40 holes. Servis is now 33 years old, and won the tourney in 1933, 1936, 1939, 1940 and 1947. McCarthy, somewhere in the early 40's, won in 1934, 1937 and 1938.

A flock of hard-driving, devil-may-care youngsters, many of whom saw war service, are the ones to watch in this meet if upsets are to occur. Several of them, unbothered by the reputations of the established contenders, are capable of ushering them to the side-lines.

Included in the challenging category are five public links entrants, all of whom breeze into the match play brackets in the 36-hole qualifier completed yesterday.

GLORIOUS FOURTH—New York's First Baseman George McQuinn is called safe at home by Umpire Berry in the glorious fourth (for the American leaguers) of the 15th annual All-Star baseball game at Sportsman's park, St. Louis. Giant Catcher Walter Cooper is holding the ball. The Americans scored three runs in the fourth and defeated the Nationals 5 to 2. Base on Balls Rated Big All-Star Story By Corum

By BILL CORUM

NEW YORK—(INS)—Analyze the all-star game and you will find that the American league won on bases on balls.

They probably would have won anyway, even if they had taken the base on balls rule out. Or even if they had taken the ball itself out.

The National league has reached the state of mind where it approaches any contest with the other circuit like a jittery old maid having her first date.

First I should say that Johnny Schmitz of the Cubs is being used as a horrible example only because he happened to be one yesterday.

Any man, woman or child who watches baseball reasonably close could have confidently predicted that the all-star game would be decided on bases on balls.

Bases on balls are baseball's hits today. Home runs get the headlines. Walks are what win games.

DIDN'T WALK 'EM

The Mathewsons, Johnsons, Alexanders, Nehfs, Pennocks, Hubbells—so seldom walked a batter who meant the difference between winning and losing a ball game that it was something to talk about when they did.

But name me just one pitcher in either league today who can do that. Yet our present day pitchers continue to pitch by yesterday's pattern.

Let's go back to Schmitz and his short and decisive appearance in yesterday's game. He is a good pitcher, but it is clear that yesterday wasn't one of his best days.

He gets one out. Then the next two batters single. Then he walks Tebbetts, at best a run-of-the-mine hitter. Now the bases are filled and the ball game's in the balance. But there's a ray of hope for Johnny. The pitcher's coming to bat.

Schmitz shoots across a couple of curves for strikes just to prove that Raschi is no Ted Williams.

What's Raschi going to do. He's going to swing at it, isn't he? Of course. He's set to swing at what he knows is coming, a ball in the strike zone. Result: single, two runs, ball game.

Ontario Seeks Benefit Foe

ONTARIO — The Ontario Merchants baseball team announced today that it was seeking an opponent for a benefit game for Pitcher Pat Patterson to be played early in August.

Patterson, veteran hurler, suffered a broken ankle in a slide into second base in Ontario's game at Greenwich Sunday.

Ontario yesterday took the measure of Mansfield T and E Tavern, 3-1, on the Ontario diamond. Walter Sandel, on the mound for the host team, held T and E to two hits

Ruth Will Miss Charity Contest

BALTIMORE, Md —(U.P.)— A charity baseball game will be played tonight at Baltimore stadium, but Babe Ruth, who left a sick bed in New York to attend, won't be there.

The Babe, who said his throat was giving him a lot of trouble, had to fly back to New York last night to go back into the hospital which had given him temporary leave. The game, between Baltimore and Jersey City, was rained out last night.

Grays Battle Shelby Blues At Blue Goose

The Mansfield Grays will meet what appears to be their stiffest opposition in this vicinity—the Shelby Blues—at 5:30 p. m. today at Blue Goose park.

Manager Lefty Deeds of the Grays has nominated Don Hardy to do the chucking for Grays and will support him with same lineup as in the past several games.

The Blues lost to the Grays, 5-1, in the only previous meeting of the two teams but gained a reputation for themselves only last Sunday by knocking off Lancaster Anchor-Hocking Glass, 7-0.

The Grays will meet the Mansfield Hawks Friday at Blue Goose. Sons of Herman and Zitzer's of the Hot Stove Major league were originally booked at Blue Goose Friday but the site of the game must be changed since the Grays, park owners, scheduled the game with the Hawks.

End Nickel Signs With Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH — (UP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football league today announced the signing of end Elbie Nickel, formerly of the University of Cincinnati, who made his debut with the local pros last year as a reserve wingman.

The addition of Nickel, who is six feet one inch and weighs 195 pounds, boosts the Steeler roster total to 47.

Frank Stranahan Now Chief Hope

HAMILTON, Ont. —(AP)— Defending champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., became the United States' chief hope in the Canadian amateur golf tournament today after the sudden elimination of Skee Riegel, the U. S. amateur king.

Riegel was shunted unceremoniously to the sidelines in the first round yesterday by Ken Ward of Montreal, one up, on the 19th.

Stranahan, who captured the British amateur crown earlier this ear, moved forward effortlessly on a 7 and 6 triumph over Jack Nash of London, Ont.

Hilborns Again Top Pin League

Art Hilborn, manager of the Colony alleys, and his wife, Hazel, still rate the nod in the mixed doubles bowling league at the Colony.

Hilborn paced the individuals with a 197-20-188—591 and the two Hilborns led the couples with 347-401-346—1,094. Bob Tipul had the high single game of 233.

Dems Support U. N., Israel, Controls

Platform Commits Party to Civil Rights Program

PHILADELPHIA —(U.P.)— Summary of key planks in the proposed 1948 Democratic party platform:

Foreign Policy-Defense: We support the United Nations fully. We will continue to lead the way toward curtailment of the use of the veto. We advocate the maintenance of an adequate Army, Navy and Air Force to protect the nation's vital interests and to assure our security against aggression. We pledge a sound humanitarian administration of the Marshall plan. We pledge ourselves to restore the reciprocal trade program crippled by the 80th Congress.

Israel: We pledge full recognition to the state of Israel. We favor revision of the arms embargo to accord to the State of Israel the right of self-defense.

Civil Rights: The Democratic party commits itself to continuing its efforts to eradicate all racial, religious and economic discrimination. We again call upon the Congress to exert its full authority to the limit of its constitutional powers to assure and protect these rights.

Prices: We shall put a halt to the disastrous price rises which have come as a result of the failure of the Republican 80th Congress to take effective action on President Truman's recommendations to control the high cost of living.

Communism: We condemn communism and other forms of totalitarianism and their destructive activity overseas and at home. We shall strengthen our laws against subversion to the full extent necessary, protecting at all times our traditional individual freedoms.

Housing-Rent Control. We shall enact comprehensive housing legislation, including provision for slum clearance and low rent housing projects initiated by local agencies. Adequate housing will end the need for rent control. Until then, it must be continued.

Budget: We pledge maintenance of those sound fiscal policies which under Democratic leadership have brought about a balanced budget and reduction of the public debt by $28,000,000,000 since the close of the war.

FAVOR TAX CUTS

Taxes: We favor reduction of taxes, wherever it is possible to do so without unbalancing the nation's economy, by giving relief to those millions of low-income families on whom the wartime burden of taxation fell most heavily. The tax reduction adopted by the Republican Congress gave relief to those who needed it least. We are opposed to a general federal sales tax.

Taft-Hartley Act We advocate repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. It has failed.

Minimum Wage: We favor adoption of a minimum wage of at least 75 cents an hour in place of the present obsolete minimum of 40 cents.

Social Security: We favor extension of the social security program. Old-age and survivors' benefits should be increased by at least 50 per cent. The eligibility age for women should be reduced from 65 to 60 years.

Education: We advocate federal aid for education administrated by and under the control of the states.

Veterans. The level of veterans' benefits must be constantly re-examined in the light of the decline in the purchasing power of the dollar brought about by inflation.

Farm: We favor a permanent system of flexible price supports for agricultural products, to maintain farm income on a parity with farm operating costs; an intensified soil conservation program; and an extended crop insurance program.

OPPOSE OLEO TAX

Oleomargarine: We favor repeal of the discriminatory taxes on the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine.

Reclamation. We pledge the continued full and unified regional development of water, mineral and other natural resources of the nation. We favor acceleration of the federal reclamation program.

Displaced Persons: We pledge ourselves to legislation to admit a minimum of 400,000 displaced persons found eligible for United States citizenship without discrimination as to race and religion.

New States: We urge immediate statehood for Hawaii and Alaska.

Atomic Energy: We pledge adherence to the principle of non-partisan civilian administration of atomic energy and the development of atomic energy for peaceful purposes through free scientific inquiry for the benefit of all the people.

Free Press: We urge vigorous promotion of world-wide freedom in the gathering and dissemination of news of press, radio and television.

Restoration of First 'White House' Proposed

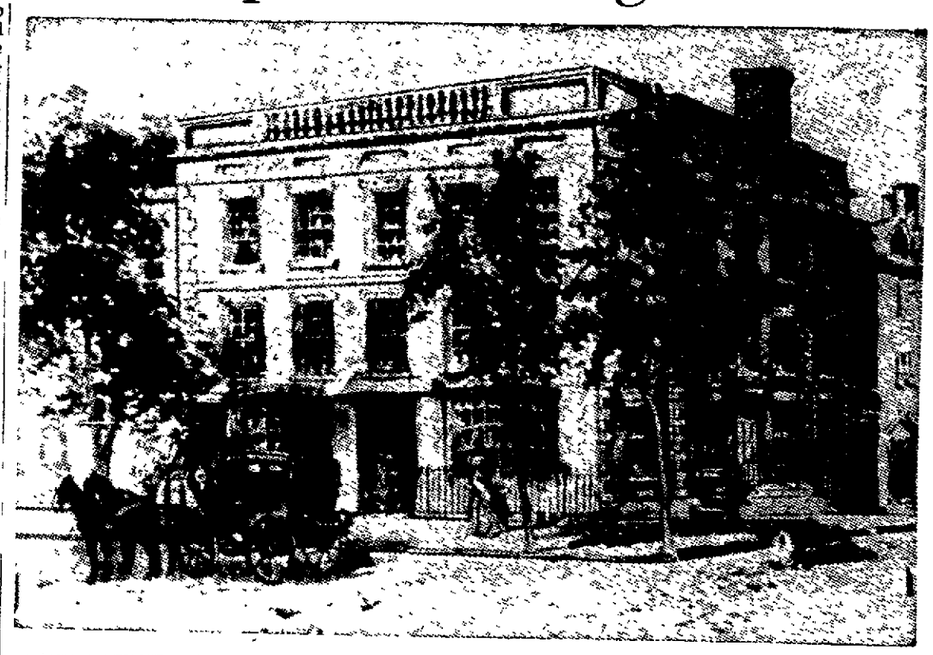
Backers Desire Replica on Original Site

NEW YORK —(CP)— A group of patriotic citizens have formed a national organization for the restoration of the first "White House" on its original site. It was here that George Washington lived and worked during the first 10 months he was president, directing the affairs of a new nation in the crucial days of its existence.

Most Americans probably have never heard of this "Presidential Mansion," as it was then called, which once stood in what is now the teaming, ugly, odoriferous, tenement-factory crowded section of the lower East Side of New York.

A recent poll of 100 citizens revealed that not one of them knew that such a "White House" had ever existed.

George Washington came to New York on April 23, 1789, one week before he was inaugurated at Federal Hall, now the Sub-Treasury on Wall Street. Te traveled from Mount Vernon in Virginia by carriage and on horseback, and every step of his journey was a march of triumph.



FIRST "WHITE HOUSE"—Sketch of first President's first home after becoming chief executive. It stood at corner of Franklin square and Cherry street, New York City, and was called the Presidential Mansion.

Washington was escorted to a handsome Colonial house in the then suburbs of the city, which was located on top of a small hill with an excellent view of the river and harbor. A joint resolution of the Senate and House had directed that it be prepared for Mr and Mrs Washington.

This house had been built in 1772 by Walter Franklin, a delegate to the Continental Congress, and had served as the home of the presidents of the Continental Congress. One president of the Congress who resided there, Richard Henry Lee, wrote the original draft of the Declaration of Independence.

Ironically it was the rapid growth of the new republic which brought an end to the first "White House." Originally situated far uptown in the choicest residential section, it became gradually surrounded by business structures as hordes of new people came to this New World. Many of these immigrants remained in New York, which for years was the principal port through which these immigrants filtered.

BUILDING TORN DOWN

In 1856, increased traffic made it necessary to widen some streets to make room for the New Bowery, and the "White House" was torn down and replaced by a five-story building. In the early 1880's, this building was sheared down to make room for the girder approach to the Brooklyn bridge and the Third Avenue elevated.

For decades the new nation was too busy with the growing pains of its expanding activities to give much throught to its historic past.

The exact site of the first "White House" was forgotten and "lost" in the shuffling of the streets and buildings.

In 1899, when the Daughters of the American Revolution decided to mark the spot the best they were able to do was to attach a plaque to a bridge pier.

Later research showed that the street number of the house on Cherry street, mentioned in the plaque as having been occupied by George Washington, was incorrect.

A few months ago Morris Berman, president of a civic body in New York, heard a lecture in which the location of the Presidential Mansion in downtown New York was mentioned.

He was amazed to learn that this site was within a few blocks of the grammar school in which he had studied American history, but in which he had never heard the slightest mention of this historic spot.

LOCATES EXACT SPOT

After locating the exact site, Berman enlisted the interest of a number of prominent New Yorkers—including Harvey Wiley Corbett, who is working on the Washington Memorial at Alexandria, Va.—and the First White House Restoration committee was organized. It is hoped to raise the funds for the restoration through popular subscription.

Today, where the Presidential Mansion once stood, there are dirty brick buildings.

It is a dark and gloomy location under the bridge, with the roar of the Third Avenue elevated and the traffic of the Brooklyn Bridge clashing with the noises of the streets below.

A restored "White House" in such a setting would seem grotesque, were it not that the City Planning commission is considering a complete transformation of a large area north and west of the Brooklyn bridge, and the creation there of a new Manhattan Civic Center.

This will mean removing the tenement and factories which now clog the lower East Side section, replacing them with a carefully laid-out residential and business district.

The Third Avenue "L" will be torn down, streets widened, and the approach to the Brooklyn bridge skeletonized.

In its plans for the new Civic Center the commission will attempt to recapture some of the rich historic flavor of this area, said Robert F. Wagner jr., its chairman. A restored Presidential Mansion on its original site, he said, would seem to be a natural part of the pattern.

Seven Places For Student Nurses Open at Hospital

General hospital still offered today places for seven prospective student nurses in the September class.

The hospital's new superintendent, Wayne Copeland, told the Rotary club yesterday that seven more students could be registered. He praised the work of the hospital's nursing school.

General hospital, he told the Rotarians, is an institution that "every Mansfielder can well be proud of."

"My first impression of the hospital which left me quite impressed last April, has been confirmed in the 13 weeks I have been here."

Copeland described the progress and efficiency of the hospital by listing the hospital record for last year.

"In 1947 more than 9,000 patients were admitted to the General hospital, 1,796 babies were born in the hospital, and 364,000 meals were served to the patients," he said.

D. L. Burns, Rotary club president, presided at the luncheon meeting in the hotel Mansfield-Leland. Paul Schiska served as program chairman.

Sharon Township Votes to Retain One-Room School

4-Mill School Levy Passed By 95 to 37

Total School Tax Now 9.8

SHARON — Sharon Township will keep its two one-room school houses.

That was the news here today as results of the special election approving a 4-mill levy for the township were tabulated.

Voters supported the levy by a vote of 95 to 37. Approximately 500 persons were eligible to vote.

In addition to providing for the upkeep of the 32-pupil Norton school on State Routes 39 and 96, near the Shelby airport, and the 34-pupil Gamble school, south of Shelby, a debt of $4,987.46 will be paid to the Shelby board of education. The debt was incurred for the tuition of pupils attending Shelby schools beyond the seventh grade.

TOTAL LEVY 9.8

The additional 4-mill levy will bring the total school tax levy of the township up to $9.80 on $1,000 of real estate valuation.

The new levy covers two years of school operation. At the expiration of the time limit, the school will operate under a much smaller levy.

Sharon authorities pointed out that the 9.8-mill levy now authorized in the township was nearly 5 mills lower than the Shelby rate of 14.2. Had the township failed to approve the local levy, the Sharon school levy would have been on a par with Shelby.

Pay Hike Vote Asked

by members of both departments and must be delivered to the board of elections 40 days prior to the election.

The request by the police and fire departments for "cost-of-living increases" was first made late last year. At that time the outgoing council agreed to grant them a $25 a month bonus, with the agreement that the departments heads would make a job evaluation study and would submit proposed wage increases to council's salary committee.

These surveys, made by police, fire and service departments, were submitted to the salary committee about two months ago. Since that time, action on the new salary schedule has been held up because the salary and finance committee of council have not met to draw up such a bill.

TRIED FOR MEETING

Chairman Harry Bowman of the salary committee has stated that he has attempted to arrange a meeting with the finance committee and that he has been waiting for the date to be set. So far no meeting has materialized.

Chief Steele had "no comment at this time" on what action would be taken by the policemen and firemen if council should pass a new salary ordinance between now and November.

Members of the two departments who were elected by their fellow workers to represent them in their quest for wage increase are Identification Officer Paul Martin, Lt. John E. Steele and Captain Paul Whipp, of the police department, and Captain Virgil Norris, Captain Raymond Cline and Fireman Ervin Remy of the fire department.

Galion Buys 230 Meters

GALION — Safety-Service Director John F. Porter announced today that the city has awarded a contract for the purchase of 230 parking meters to the Koontz Equipment corporation, Pittsburgh.

According to terms of the sale the city will pay $79.50 each for 200 meters and the company will furnish the remainder without charge.

The meters are guaranteed for two years and will be paid for at the rate of $8.25 per meter per month, Porter said.

Deaths In Area

Ex-Willard Railroader Found Dead

WILLARD—The body of Arthur B. Collins, 70-year-old retired railroader, was found early today in his automobile.

Dr. J. D. Bradish of New London, Huron county coroner, said an inquest would be held later today.

Mr. Collins' body was found by a member of his family, who investigated when he heard car's motor in the garage. Mr. Collins had been in poor health for several months.

He was a retired passenger brakeman for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and had lived in Willard for 42 years. He was a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. Collins was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren church, the Masons, Elks, Eagles, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Surviving are his widow, Ella, a son, Harry, and three grandchildren, all of Willard.

Funeral services, in charge of the Fink funeral home, will be announced later.

★

CHARLES HOOVER

ASHLAND — Charles Hoover, 80, a retired auto dealer, died Tuesday at 10:20 p. m. at his home, 209 College avenue.

He leaves his wife, Esther.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the Gilbert funeral home with Rev. R. L. Smith officiating. Burial will be in Ashland cemetery.

★

PVT. ARTHUR LEDBETTER

MILLERSBURG—Funeral services for Pvt. Arthur J. Ledbetter, U. S. Army, who died Oct. 4, 1944, in England of wounds sustained during the German campaign, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Hunter funeral home here.

The local Veterans of Foreign Wars post will conduct military rites at the grave.

Youthful Cyclists Invited on Tour

Members of the Mansfield "Y" Century Cycle club have invited all city boys and girls interested to accompany them tomorrow on a tour of the Shelby Cycle works, Shelby.

Members and non-members of the club will be taken on a conducted tour through the plant where they will see the complete operations for the production of bicycles. In the company's bicycle museum, the group will see bicycles old and new and of every size and description.

The group will meet Thursday at 9 a. m. at the Carpenter school grounds complete with their bicycles, towel and bathing suit picnic lunch and 15 cents for swimming.

Shovel Cuts 1,986 Telephone Circuits

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Patched temporary connections were being used today to replace 1,986 circuits broken late yesterday when a pull shovel broke five telephone cables in the suburb of Euclid.

The shovel was excavating for a sanitary sewer. The contractor said plans given him by the city of Euclid failed to show the location of the cables.

Profit Taking Flags Down Railway Group Price Climb

NEW YORK—(AP)—Profit taking sales flagged down the fast-rolling railway group in the stock market today.

Losses for some recently popular carriers ran from fractions to more than a point. Elsewhere prices generally showed an even mixture of advances and declines, mostly fractional.

Court Hears Ballot Plea

COLUMBUS —(INS)— A flat denial of any communist connection with the men who signed the anti-sedition affidavit in support of Henry A. Wallace for President was made before the state supreme court today.

The high court gave more than an hour and a half to arguments on two cases brought by Wallace supporters seeking to compel Secretary of State Edward J. Hummel to place Wallace's name on the Ohio ballot in November.

One of the suits asked that Hummel be ordered to accept petitions to place the name of Wallace and his vice presidential candidate Sen. Henry Taylor of Idaho, on the ballot as independent candidates.

The second appealed from a Hummel ruling disqualifying the Wallace for president committee on the grounds it had not complied with the statutory provision that it furnish an anti-sedition affidavit.

Hummel's investigator, George S. Huston, furnished the secretary with a report that at least two of the 10 signers of the affidavit were communists.

Adrian B. Fink jr., the Wallace for President committee counsel, told the court flatly:

"These men are not communists."

GAINS PARTIAL CUSTODY

CLEVELAND—(INS)—Mrs. Dulcie Wolansky, 23, was granted partial custody of her child, Mary Jane Wolansky, 2, in a court battle in Cleveland with her former husband, Nicholas, 32. Both the Wolanskys are deaf-mutes.

2 PLANES SEIZED

MILLVILLE, N. J. —(INS)— U. S. customs agents today stood guard over two constellation planes which were seized shortly before they were reportedly to be flown to Israel.

FIGHTER ACCEPTS BID

COLUMBUS — (INS) — State Grange Master Joseph W. Fichter announced acceptance of an invitation from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the Republican presidential candidate, to a dinner at the Pawling, N. Y. grange hall a week from Saturday.

City Power Favored In Galion

Municipal Pay Hike Tabled

GALION — In a final bid to end Galion's long-standing power troubles, city council last night accepted a recommendation to continue the Municipal Light and Power company plant and system as the sole source of electric energy in the city.

In addition, council adopted a resolution calling for a general plant expansion program, designed to meet the present and future needs of the community.

The purchase of a block of 3,000 k.w. of power from a private utility for a period of not less than three nor more than five years will be authorized when legislation is formally approved.

Lack of adequate electric power in Galion has kept thousands of plant workers idle for more than one week. Some 70-odd persons, all affected by the long lay-off, were on hand to hear the discussion on the power question. Plant employes won't be able to return to work until Monday because of the power shortage.

LAW AUTHORIZES

John F. Porter, service-safety director, presented the recommendations. George Davies, city solicitor, was authorized to draw up the necessary legislation to carry out the recommendations. The legislation will be formally passed at a later session.

Legislation providing a blanket raise for city employes in every department was tabled because council lacked a necessary quorum to act.

The proposed wage hike, declared an "emergency measure," consequently was given its first reading. The next reading will come up at the July 20 session of council.

Dewey Raps Dem 'Plank'

NEW YORK — (UP) — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, today assailed the Democratic platform's foreign affairs declaration as "extremely partisan and provocative."

Dewey opened his attack on the Democratic platform after a lengthy conference with John Foster Dulles, his chief adviser on international affairs.

"Mr. Dulles and I have canvassed the intense Berlin situation and the problems which may result from the extremely partisan and provocative assertions concerning foreign affairs in the draft platform of the Democratic party," Dewey said.

The governor, who has opened a series of conferences with Republican policy makers to shape issues for the forthcoming campaign, will confer tonight with his political chief, Herbert Brownell jr.

Dewey has met with Sen. Robert A. Taft, his chief rival for the nomination.

Shelby Jay-Teen Youth Club Plans Friday Night Dances

SHELBY — Shelby's Jaycee-sponsored Jay-Teen club will stage weekly square dances during the summer.

The Youth Activities committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce last night formulated plans to hold a dance every Friday evening.

Gene Rietschlin and his Hillbilly band will furnish music for the occasion.

The Jay-Teen club extended an invitation to boys and girls in surrounding towns to attend the summer round dance at the south pavilion at Seltzer park July 23.

A Jaycee spokesman announced that the second annual swimming meet will be held Aug. 22 at Seltzer park pool. Included in the events will be diving contests, various swimming events and a bathing beauty contest.

The Jay-Teen board of Trustees will meet tonight. Jessie Cairns, president, listed new board and council members.

Named to the board were: Roger Pfahler, Louise Wright, Don Limpach, Dale McKinney and Dr. A. Sneeringer.

Council officers named: Lou Ellen Fireoved, president; Shirley Bourgeois, vice president; Joan Payne, secretary. Members include: Sally Smith, Jim Smith, Joan Yetzer, Ann Lee Irey, Jim Barkdull, Emily Heck, Sally Harbaugh, Sandra Graham and Fay Hodges.

Polio Strikes Galion Boy, 11

GALION — An 11-year-old Galion youth was reported suffering from polio today.

The boy, Larry Leapley, is a patient at Children's hospital, Columbus, where he was admitted Monday.

Hospital attaches said that the youth might have picked up the poliomyelitis while on a vacation trip.

Meanwhile, O. R. Kackley, health commissioner, explained there was no cause for alarm. He said, however, that it would be wise to observe all the usual health precautions.

Drunken Driver Fined $75 By Court

Marshall Duncan, 60 East First street, was fined $75 in municipal court today for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. His driver's license was suspended for six months.

William Friend, Mansfield, R. D. 4, was fined $10 and costs for failing to yield the right of way.

3 Princesses, Queen Injured

COPENHAGEN — (AP) — Denmark's Queen Ingrid and three princesses were injured today when the queen smashed her car against a tree.

The queen was said to have been driving when the car skidded near Graasten, South Jutland. The car smashed against a tree. The chauffeur was badly hurt.

The queen and Princesses Margrethe, Benetikte and Anne Marie were taken to Soenderborg hospital. Their condition is not known.

Two Injured In Accident

ASHLAND — Two out-of-state motorists lay critically injured in Samaritan hospital today because a driver presumably went to sleep at the wheel.

The injured, Louis Forkas, 23, of Detroit, Mich., and Ray Musial, 27, of Passaic, N. J.

Hospital attaches reported that both men suffered possible fractured skulls, lacerations of the head and legs and possible rib fractures.

Rex McKinley, deputy sheriff, said a coupe driven by Forkas went out of control at 7:50 a. m. on Route 250, one-half mile south of Savannah. He said that the car smashed over an embankment and landed in a culvert and caught fire.

Members of the volunteer Savannah fire department answered the call and pulled the two men out. The car was demolished, mashed and burned.

Deputy McKinley said the driver "fell asleep at the wheel."

Three Residents Require License

Judge H. H. Schettler today explained that state law requires that "homes for the aged" be licensed if they are occupied by three or more persons.

The News-Journal erroneously reported yesterday that Mary Hazlett, 147 South Main street, who runs a home for the aged at that address was ordered by the judge to comply with the state law by obtaining a license or reducing the number of residents to three. To operate without a license, the judge explained, there must be no more than two residents.

Youth Loses Driving Right

Allen Lewis Clifton, 17, of 97 Hedges street, lost the right to drive for the next six months yesterday afternoon in juvenile court.

Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer suspended Clifton's license after finding him guilty of failing to yield the right of way. The youth was involved in an accident with a car driven by George W. Reece of Mansfield.

Clifton's license had been suspended for 30 days on June 8. He was convicted of unsafe operation of an automobile June 7.

Survey of 20 Years Ago Listed Many of City's Present Needs

By EILEEN DEWHURST

Twenty years ago a city planning commission hired officials of the Technical Advisory corporation, a New York City firm of experts, to survey the city and help draft a building and zoning code and a city plan.

The experts made a number of recommendations which they considered essential to the development of a modern, healthful Mansfield of the future. Unfortunately, many of the recommendations are still just that, nothing has been done to bring about their realization.

Campbell Scott headed the group of engineers who rated as most important the enacting of the building code and zoning ordinance which was then in preparation. The recommendation was not followed because of too numerous individual protests. As a result the Mansfield of 20 years later has filling stations and other businesses in the midst of what should be strictly residential areas.

Another point stressed by the experts was the construction of a viaduct across the valley crossed by the Baltimore and Ohio and Erie railroads to connect the western and northern sections of the city. This project, later called the Rowland avenue viaduct, is still referred to as one of the city's problems. Recently an attempt has been inaugurated to construct an underpass near old Casino park to answer the same purpose.

More adequate sewage facilities were termed a pressing necessity in the engineers' report. Although some progress has been made in this direction, recent newspaper articles on the inadequacy of the present system are a reminder that the problem has not been satisfactorily solved.

Mansfield still needs the civic center and public auditorium which the experts recommended. Railroad grade crossings whose elimination was advised still remain a serious city traffic problem.

However, it is a well-known fact that the machinery of popular government moves slowly, and some progress has been made in the 20 year period.

LOTS RENUMBERED

Complete renumbering of lots by a more uniform system has been carried out in certain sections of the city.

Liberty and John Todd parks have been added to the system of city parks and playgrounds, a step toward the expansion of recreational areas which the experts recommended. This summer Maple Lake park is being improved and developed and similar improvements are being discussed for John Todd park.

Bowman school branch library is a partial answer to the need for a system of such libraries in the city.

When the experts advised the commission to determine the location of airplane landing fields, they foresaw the day when Mansfield would have a municipal airport.

The planners were a little optimistic when they predicted that the city's population would double by 1950. That would be 60,000. The most recent figure is 47,000.

These 47,000 need the improvements recommended even more than did the 30,000 of 1928. The dark alleys which the New Yorkers said had no place in a modern city still remain. The building of a large market place which they visualized is still a dream.

When the experts called Mansfield lucky because of its strategic position, the highest and most sanitary location in the state, they were pointing to something of which its citizens could, and still can, be proud. But this location is a gift of nature, now Mansfielders should make improvements which they can point to with pride and say "we did it."

Reinstatement Deadline Near

Mansfield area veterans of World War II were cautioned today of the approaching dead-line for reinstating their National Service Life Insurance. The Mansfield Veterans Administration reminded that the dead-line for reinstating lapsed policies is July 31. After that date veterans with lapsed policies will be required to pass a physical examination in order to renew their policies.

Until July 31, veterans may reinstate their lapsed policies, regardless of the length of time they have been lapsed, by submitting a simple application form and by payment of two monthly premiums for the amount of insurance reinstated. The veterans need only certify that their health is as good as it was when the policy lapsed.

They may reinstate any amount from $1,000 to $10,000 in multiples of $500.

More than 10,000,000 veterans who formerly carried National Service Life Insurance currently have none in force.

Map Outlines Steel Areas

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The commerce department said today 40.3 per cent of the nation's rated annual steel producing capacity of 94,200,000 tons is located in Pittsburgh-Youngstown, O., district.

A map prepared by the department to show geographical distribution of the country's steel producing plants put the Chicago district in second place with 21.3 per cent of capacity.

For other major producing districts, the capacity percentage was given as Eastern 19.6, Cleveland-Detroit 8.2, Southern 4.7 and Western 5.4.

In offering single copies of the map to persons requesting them, the department said interest of consuming industries in the location of steel supply sources had been stimulated by recent abandonment of the basing point price system by a large part of the steel industry.

Spend $6,000,000 On Philanthropy

PASADENA, Calif. — (AP) — The Catholic Daughters of America have spent more than $6,000,000 in philanthropic work the past 28 years and an additional $3,000,000 on education and religious projects.

This statement came from Miss Mary C. Duffy of South Orange, N. J., last night as she addressed the national convention of the organization.

PAGE FOUR MANSFIELD, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1948

Let's see, now, which laws are being enforced this week—really there should be a schedule of such things.

Wonder if the bomb-planter thinks by now that this is to be added to the police department's file of "unsolved mysteries."

It was the late Will Rogers who quipped: "The Republicans have their splits right after election and the Democrats have theirs just before an election."

Shall Laws Be Flouted Here?

BOMBINGS, such as the one perpetrated here a week ago last Monday morning, are not new to Mansfield experience, and the most recent occurrence of this kind reflects again the same elements of racketeering encroachment that marked earlier exhibitions of outlawry in this community.

It was on the night of Friday, August 21, 1931, that the newly established Mansfield Journal plant, located at 22 South Walnut street, was damaged, and a number of lives endangered, by the explosion of a bomb thrown from a passing automobile into a basement window.

On Sunday, November 12, 1933, the News-Journal plant, in its present location, was considerably damaged by explosion of a bomb thrown into the circulation department from the Walnut street side of the building—so this newspaper is in position to speak with considerable vehemence in urging the utmost of effort to capture and punish the perpetrator of the July 5 outrage, which not only did extensive property damage but injured two police officers and two firemen whose quick response to a call placed them on the scene before the explosion.

It has been a long-standing policy of police departments to follow through to arrest and conviction of offenders, any crime of violence that involved the death or injury of a fellow officer—and the wonder is that in this instance the board of county commissioners has been permitted to adopt such a don't care attitude as is indicated by failure to offer a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the underworld character who placed the bomb at the rear of a South Park street cafe ten days ago.

Whether or not this latest exhibition of violence hooks up directly with efforts of "outsiders" to "muscle in" on the local gambling setup is problematical, but it cannot be doubted that a community burdened by a diversity of underworld characters, encouraged by laxity in law enforcement, becomes open to competition for control of lucrative rackets.

It is very generally recognized that such illegal gambling as has been permitted to return to Mansfield, after having been banned by Chief of Police Jesse Schwab through February and March, cannot exist without administration sanction—and responsibility traces directly to Mayor Roy W. Vaughn, as chief executive of the city—however much he may seek to shift that responsibility to the chief of police, who dismisses inquiries on the subject of reasons for lifting the gambling ban with a nonchalant "No comment."

Recognizing an obligation to keep its readers informed on matters having to do with the welfare of this city, and realizing that the two bombings to which this newspaper was subjected as a result of underworld objection to editorial policies, The News-Journal wishes to make it clear that it will continue, to the extent of its ability, to combat the official nonfeasance which marks the present administration attitude toward organized illegal gambling—coupled with such associated outlawry as is reflected in the still unsolved bombing mystery.

And, in the event of any doubt on the subject, it may also need saying that repetition of any form of attempted bribery of any member of The News-Journal organization will not bring the slightest iota of change in presenting information to which the people of Mansfield are entitled.

If bribery and graft are in any way associated with protection of Mansfield's illegal gambling interests, the search must be made in other quarters—AND THAT SEARCH SHOULD BE MADE.

Now comes the reported incident of a fellow who asked for small change for a $20 bill and was handed two tens.

One office reports: "A place for everything—and everything some place else."

Here They Come Again.

Viewing the National Scene

As Ben Franklin Said—

By THOMAS L. STOKES

PHILADELPHIA — It was in this city or hereabouts that wise old Benjamin Franklin made the observation.

"If we don't hang together, we'll all hang separately."

With application to a slightly different situation, the Democratic party has acted that out here, hanging itself, so to speak, in the public square, in full view of everybody.

It's not a single corpse dangling at the end of the rope. There are four or five, figuratively, representing the various parties of which the Democratic party is made up — irate and hot-blooded southerners, big city bosses, the energetic but politically inept ex-New Dealers, the silk-stocking element clinging sedately still to something incorrectly labeled the Thomas Jefferson tradition and just ordinary Democrats, moderately progressive, who ask a fair deal from their government.

The Democratic party always has been several individual parties. They only hang together under the stress of a great national need, when some leader of extraordinary capacity rises to weld the diverse and conflicting elements into something approaching a single party with a single purpose.

Such as, for instance, when Woodrow Wilson pulled them together to become the voice and instrument of the progressivism then welling up among the rank and file of people who saw that our growing industrial society was not organized to serve their needs

* * *

Signs of Split-up.

Or, as twenty years later, in 1932, when the system again failed to meet the needs of the people and collapsed in the nation's most severe depression and another magnetic leader came along to fuse the various elements of the Democratic party into an instrument of political revolt to change the existing order.

Franklin D. Roosevelt held the party together longer than anyone expected. It was obvious at the Democratic convention four years ago, when the southerners and the big city labor and minority elements were holding meetings denouncing each other, that the party probably would hold together for only that election, the 1944 election, and that would happen only because of Mr. Roosevelt's leadership and the national emergency of war.

It has been flying apart faster and faster since then under the looser reins and the less intense purpose of his successor, Harry Truman, and so now, in its 1948 convention here, it is, as Ben Franklin put it, hanging separately, with the gibbets all over the scene.

But, while this basic inner weakness has been apparent for some time, nobody could have foreseen that the party would commit suicide so publicly and with such evident relish, particularly in view of the natural self-protective instinct of politicians and the auspicious outward circumstances, meaning the general prosperity, full employment, and the lack of any argument against its continuance of power on that score. It chose to commit suicide when its household affairs were in excellent order.

Most astounding is the hysteria into which they worked themselves over a war hero to save them, with no assurance whatever that the war hero, namely General Dwight D. Eisenhower, had any intention of saving them from their folly.

It was a hysteria more weird than the tulip craze of Holland, The Mississippi Bubble, the Florida land boom of the middle twenties or the stock market speculative spree that ended the twenties in a parade of breadlines.

One Man's Opinion

CONVENTION HALL—There are six television makeup men waiting under the stage . . . That indicates three tickets with false eyelashes.

* * *

The Democrats learned a lesson from the Republican convention and no one gets to the rostrum without a strong speech and strong eye shadow.

When television adds scent to sight and sound politicians also will be sprayed with "Allure" and dabbed behind the ears with "My Love."

* * *

Patriotic makeup as blues, red and right now this convention could be stampeded by a traffic cop who also can blow the whistle on the Republicans.

But I still don't see how Philadelphia will know when the Democrats move out of Convention hall and the red men move in.

Timely Editorial

"Keep The Peace!"

The strongest argument for making the United Nations a strong, effective guardian of lasting peace comes from Geneva.

The same news dispatch carries an implied warning to Americans to preserve this nation's military power and defensive strength, so that we may be safe from attack.

Seventy-eight million voices — stilled for ever in World War II — make this plea that war be forever outlawed. For they are the war dead, thirty-two million men killed on the battlefields; twenty-six million men, women and children killed in concentration camps; twenty million men, women and children killed by air bombing.

Who can forget the colossal cost of war in human lives? Who can deny that a third world war, fought with super-destructive atomic weapons, will claim ten or a hundred times as many victims?

The dead speak a warning. Let us pray that we, the living, have sense enough to listen. — Akron Beacon Journal.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Truman Nomination Boost To Wallace

By DREW PEARSON

PHILADELPHIA—The smoke-filled room that put Harry Truman into the White House was Ed Flynn's suite at the Blackstone hotel in Chicago in 1944. The so-called smoke-filled room "that tried to take Harry Truman out of the White House in 1948" was the club room at the Drake hotel in Philadelphia. Only it was filled with Coca-Cola bottles rather than cigar smoke.

In Chicago, Mayor Kelly of Chicago, Mayor Hague of Jersey City, Ed Flynn of the Bronx and Bob Hannegan gathered to chart the Truman strategy, and to talk long distance to FDR on his special train en route west.

In Philadelphia, Kelly, Flynn, Hague and Hannegan were all unhappy about Truman's insistence that he run again. But the real plotting against Truman was charted by Bill Ritchie of Nebraska, Harry Carlson of New Hampshire, Barnett Hodes of Chicago, August Scholle of Michigan, Carl Rice of Kansas, Senator Claude Pepper of Florida, George Gooch of Florida, and Jack Kroll of Ohio.

Whereas the pro-Truman bigwigs met late at night and in strictest secrecy at the Blackstone, the anti-Truman plotters at Philadelphia met with half a dozen newsmen banging on the door demanding to be let in. They were not admitted.

Bill Ritchie, Democratic national committeeman from Nebraska, presided. He said he was tired of "phantom candidates," such as Eisenhower, and wanted one he knew was ready and willing to run.

Jimmy Roosevelt's representatives—Irving Schulman and Joe Di Silva—reported that Jimmy had phoned Justice Douglas asking him to run not for vice president but for president and had urged Douglas to make a forthright statement publicly that he would resign from the court.

* * *

"Why Pick a Loser?"

SEVERAL present did not think Douglas would do that, and meanwhile they proposed Senator Pepper of Florida.

"Truman's renomination without a fight guarantees another 5,000,000 votes to Henry Wallace," warned Jack Kroll, head of CIO-PAC, who is also a delegate from Ohio. "The party is certain to lose with Truman," he continued, "so why pick a loser?"

The only man willing to run who could take several million votes away from Wallace, Kroll continued, is Claude Pepper.

"The Democratic party will be out of power for at least twenty years," Kroll warned, "if Truman goes unchallenged."

Joe Di Silva of California agreed.

"Why nominate a guy that you couldn't get enough names on petitions for to get him on the ballot?" he asked, adding that Jimmy Roosevelt had called him to ask that he get a petition signed for Truman in California.

"I had to put 16 men on the job and it took several days," explained Di Silva. "I don't deal with politicians or rich people. I deal with workers, and I can tell you they're against Truman."

Also present was Leonard Finder, New Hampshire publisher and initial booster of General Eisenhower.

"I speak as an independent Republican, not as a delegate, and as one who carried the flag for General Eisenhower as long as it could be carried," Finder told the Democrats. "I know that I am speaking for thousands of independent voters when I say that if the Democrats nominate Harry Truman they will forfeit any chance of winning independent Republican votes."

Just An Ex-Cabineteer.

ONE prominent convention delegate is popular Ex-Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson, now running for the Senate from New Mexico. Anderson flew from Washington to Philadelphia with a group of his old cabinet colleagues, including Attorney General Tom Clark, Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan, and Secretary for Air Stuart Symington.

The group was met at the Philadelphia airport by a police escort and a fleet of official cars. When the police lieutenant in charge read out the car assignments he made no mention of Anderson.

"Well, Clint," quipped Secretary Symington, "here's where you find out you're not a cabinet member any more."

Convention Sidelights.

THE Illinois convention train, dubbed the "Eisenhower Special," was about as good as its candidate, arrived seven hours late . . . Chicago's Ex-Mayor Ed Kelly claims to have a $300 "atomic medical gadget" which will cure anything from rheumatism to gallstones . . . One newsman, reporting the dullness of the convention, wired his editor: "I hope you won't deduct my time from my vacation." When Clint Anderson was secretary of agriculture, he gave an occasional ride in his government car to one of his assistants. Charles Brannan. Now that Brannan is secretary of agriculture, Anderson promotes rides from his successor . . . The Bellevue - Stratford hotel offered the Democrats a giant rubber donkey inflated by compressed air to decorate the hotel marquee. But the Democrats, mindful of how the GOP elephant was repeatedly deflated by smoldering cigarette butts, declined with thanks. Instead, the Democrats trotted out a papier mache donkey with electric eyes that flash on and off.

A Non-Partisan Tribute

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON — One correspondent's cuff-notes about a keynote speaker:

There were both Republicans and Democrats seated in the little group around the radio, listening while the man making the introduction worked up to fine pitch of convention forensics. No one was paying much attention, for it was a typical introduction, full of high-flown phrases.

"Say," one of them suddenly spoke up, "remember that night at the press club?"

The others nodded. All of them remembered.

It was the annual congressional night at the National Press club, and each attending member had brought as his guest some senator of representative or cabinet member or nationally-known political figure.

After dinner, there was a sort of half-planned, half-pickup program with the guests doing most of the entertaining.

Toward the end of the program, the master of ceremonies — a veteran Washington newspaperman who now is a White House correspondent — prepared to introduce another speaker.

"This is not the sort of introduction usually heard in this club," he said in effect, "and it certainly is different from most of those you have heard tonight. Also, it undoubtedly is going to embarrass the next speaker. But, without any fear of being contradicted or razzed, I want to introduce the most-beloved man on Capitol Hill — and that goes for both Democrats and Republicans!"

And that crowd of cynical newsmen and equally-cynical politicians — Democrats and Republicans alike—nodded to one another in agreement and applauded an enthusiastic welcome when he concluded:

"* * * and so I introduce Senator Alben Barkley!"

* * *

Respected By Everyone.

AND there is no explaining the feeling of warmth and good will which swept through the room as the stocky, square-cut figure strode out on the stage, hair neatly combed and face beaming, partly from embarrassment and partly from pleasure.

The speaker in Philadelphia had finished his introduction, and the convention crowd was going wild. The radio announcer said Barkley was standing up there, both hands raised in an effort to quiet them. He finally had to do it by the drastic expedient of starting to speak, although his first few words would be lost to the delegates.

"Sort of reminds you of that demonstration the Republicans pitched for Herbert Hoover, doesn't it?" said one of the group around the radio.

"Yeah, it does," said another, "and if there ever were two men with less in common — " his voice trailed off.

"Well, I don't know," replied the first. "They both have one thing in common — complete personal dignity. Neither of them ever looked ridiculous in high position, or did anything personally to make their offices lost dignity."

And the group around the radio nodded thoughtful agreement.

Now, Barkley's words had been flowing over the air waves for some time. He had struck telling blows against the G. O. P. and in support of the Democratic and New Deal record.

Nevertheless, a Kentuckian born and bred, he warned his own party on the civil rights issue — "* * * what shall it profit a party if it gains all the power and loses its own soul * * *" — and he paid warm and personal tribute to those Republican leaders who he felt had risen above partisan politics to strengthen the nation's foreign affairs program.

The group around the radio looked at one another and smiled. These were strange words for a political convention keynoter, but they didn't seem at all unusual coming from Alben Barkley.

The Nation Today

What the Fight's About

By JAMES MARLOW

PHILADELPHIA — This Democratic convention must seem awfully strange to people outside the United States.

How are you going to explain to people of other countries what the real issue is here?

Yet, the issue can be stated simply.

It involves civil rights for the 13,000,000 Negroes in this country's 140,000,000 people.

Just to get the story in focus, start at the beginning.

Early in 1947 President Truman appointed a number of men and women to what he called the President's Commission on Civil Rights.

These men and women on Oct. 29 issued a report on their intensive study. It included such things as the pay of teachers in Negro schools and facts on the number of Negro lynchings.

Basing his thinking on that report, Mr. Truman early this year made a number of suggestions on civil rights for Negroes.

Whether you like it or not, Negroes in this country are treated as second class citizens.

For example:

In the South Negroes must ride behind white people in trains and busses; they can't go to the same shows, or if they can get in at all, they have to sit in the gallery.

But anyway in 1948 President Truman cut loose with a number of suggestions to Congress. He recommended things like these:

1. Congress to pass a law wiping out the poll tax. Seven Southern states and New Hampshire require payment of a poll tax before a person, white or Negro, can vote.

2. Congress to pass a law making the lynching of anyone any time a federal crime.

* * *

THIS is where trying to explain this story to Europe—with its mixed up races—is not a simple job. This is why:

There are 13,000,000 Negroes in the United States and President Truman asked for a better break for all of them.

Right at this point Southern Democrats—white, that is—began to renounce Mr. Truman's program. They didn't want it.

They argued: A state has rights so the federal government has no right stepping in.

And right there the Southern politicals jumped on the anti-Truman bandwagon and still haven't got off. They don't want him for president.

Mr. Truman's only major crime, in the eyes of the South, is advocating civil rights.

Those civil rights—based on the Constitution—seem to express the noblest of intentions.

But in practical, every-day politics the shining issue often gets lost in the fog of conflicting realities.

The white Southern politicians do not forget the troubles that beset the South after the Civil war; they are sure that the people of the South haven't forgotten.

In many areas in the South there are more Negroes than there are whites.

The whites still hold in memory and fear the days when the victorious North, through the power of an occupation army, but political power in the hands of fresh-freed and uneducated slaves and Northern carpetbaggers.

Southerners feel they have the best interest of the Negroes at heart. They say they take care of the Negro and should continue to deal with him, themselves, rather than someone in Washington. They point to Negro advances under this system.

Yet, Europeans, apt to take the American Constitution at face value, may be puzzled by all the fighting that has been going on here.

But no European nation has exactly this same problem in its home country.

Grab Bag

One-Minute Test.

1. What word may be formed from the initials of the Great Lakes?
2. What term is used on the radio for programs broadcast from phonograph records?
3. What does the proverb say would happen if fools went not to market?
4. Who made a classic book of card game rules?

Words of Wise.

The fire you kindle for your enemy often burns yourself more than him.—Chinese Proverb.

Etiquette Hint.

When invitations are given beforehand to a lunch party or dinner in a restaurant, the host or hostess usually orders the meal in advance, and the guests eat what is put before them exactly as at their host's home.

Answers to Test.

1. H-O-M-E-S: Huron, Ontario, Michigan, Erie and Superior.
2. Transcriptions.
3. Bad wares would not be sold.
4. Edmund Hoyle.

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Changes Needed In Convention System

PHILADELPHIA — [illegible] thoughtful people [illegible] there is a rapidly growing feeling that our [illegible] system of nominating candidates is [illegible] some inadequate and [illegible] fortuitous. By the time the Democratic show is over [illegible] resentment will reach a degree comparable with the temperature and humidity of Philadelphia.

Right now, while the heat and suffocating crowds are upon those in Philadelphia and the din of futility is coming in on millions of radios, a few constitutions may be in order for better conventions next time.

First, the convention should be smaller. A third of the present membership should be sufficient. If a convention of 300-odd should be impracticable because of the need for representation let us take 531 as a convenient starting place. That is the total membership of Congress. Then in the case of the Republican party, the representation of all states could be equalized with two Republican votes. That has already been done to a degree, but it should be pushed further.

Second, the convention should be either much shorter or much [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Big Highway Jobs Likely

Two big highway projects soon will start in the Mansfield area. The state highway department in Columbus announced yesterday that low bidders on projects for U. S. 30-S and five state routes were under the estimates previously made.

The Mansfield Asphalt company of Mansfield offered to pave 1.418 miles of U. S. Route 30-S in Springfield township for $41,496. The department's estimate for the job was $41,500.

The Bucyrus Material company of Bucyrus offered to resurface 10.76 miles of State Routes 98, 96, 181, 99 and 314 in Crawford, Huron and Richland counties for $21,719. The estimate for the three-county five-highway project was $22,363.

Glad Now He Chose Directing Job

Career Grows From Disappointment

By NITA BRANSON

Twenty years ago, a youth who all his life had wanted to be a concert singer made a decision that gave to Mansfield one of the outstanding music directors of the country.

A. LeMoine Derr, Mansfield Senior high school music supervisor, who yesterday left with Mrs. Derr on a 10-day auto trip to New York, can't remember when his ambition as a child wasn't to be a concert and operatic singer.

He had sung since he was old enough to mount a platform. He continued to sing through his high school and college days. Mostly, he recalls, he sang because his mother sang.

Then something happened.

"I went to Wittenberg college on a scholarship," he recalls. "I studied there for two years, then went to Cincinnati Conservatory of music and studied under Dan Beddoe who in my opinion was the greatest oratorio singer the country has ever had.

DISAPPOINTED

"I heard him for the last time at 76 and his tenor voice was wonderful. Then I was persuaded to return to Wittenberg and by the time I graduated it was evident that I was not going to be able to sing as I had always wanted.

"So I took a job as music supervisor at Phillipsburg, near Dayton, partly because I had to make a living and partly because something had happened to my voice. It wasn't as good as it had been when I finished high school."

A. LEMOINE DERR AND MRS. DERR

It was about that time, 16 years ago, that Derr married the girl who had been a school companion of his since he was in the second grade. To the encouragement she gave him in smoothing out the "bumps," he gives much of the credit for his career.

'GLAD OF IT ALL'

"Now I'm glad of course, that things turned out the way they did," Derr admits. "I've had a great deal of satisfaction working with the youngsters out at high school. They've been wonderful to me in spite of times when I know my temper was not too good.

"And when I think of my former pupils making good it's really wonderful.

"Take Robert Early, for instance, who has been with the cast of Oklahoma for a number of years. I remember when Early didn't know which he wanted to be, a singer or a director. He has a fine voice and of course I wanted him to sing.

"So one day we took our revolvers and went out in the woods, ostensibly to hunt but really to thresh out the problem. As a result of that conference, he went to Chatauqua and won second at the Juilliard School of Music contest.

"He came back home, I think for just about ten days, then headed for New York and without any trouble whatever he found a spot for himself.

"Then there's Richard Wright, one of my boys. And of course Marjorie Selby."

CHILDREN COOPERATE

Mrs. Derr took up the story. "It's wonderful what they will do for Lemoine. Five or six years ago when he was ill and having trouble with his eyes, the Senior boys and girls wanted to buy glasses for him. Of course he got his own but the thought was so nice and that's the way they've always been."

When Derr began the Mastersingers organization he had no thought in mind except to provide for the city of Mansfield a chorus which could present music a little out of the ordinary. An engagement at Chautauqua such as members have lined up for Aug. 28 and 29 was the farthest thing from his thoughts.

"But the driving force behind the Mastersingers has really been Dr. Hoffman," he said. Dr. F. A. Hoffman is the pianist for the group. "He's the one who has ambitions and who urges us on. He deserves. I think, much of the credit for the success of the Mastersingers. He and 'Doc' Platt." C. H. Platt is treasurer of the organization.

While Derr is tremendously pleased with the success of the Mastersingers, he has no "hifalutin" ideas. After all, he's thoroughly content with his work among Senior high students. And by this time, he's lost all interest in his original dream.

"I get too much of a kick out of my high school choirs and ensembles," he said.

CONTRACT SIGNED

CINCINNATI — (AP) — A new contract, calling for an immediate wage boost of eight cents an hour for some 2,500 employes, has been signed by the Cincinnati Street Railway company, and the AFL Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Workers, the company and union announced Tuesday.

Estate Aids Cancer Fund

HOLLYWOOD — (U.P.) — Most of Showman Earl Carroll's $1,000,000 estate was earmarked today for establishment of a cancer research clinic.

Beryl Wallace, star of Carroll's revues, was named principal beneficiary in the will filed for probate here Monday, with provisions that if she died before she could inherit, her share was to go for the clinic.

Carroll and Miss Wallace were killed with 41 others in a plane crash June 17 at Mount Carmel, Pa.

Half his stock holdings were bequeathed to Mrs. Jessie I. Schuyler, a longtime friend, and $32,000 was distributed among friends and relatives.

The remainder was to go to Miss Wallace. A $50,000 marble memorial to both or them will be erected in Forest Lawn cemetery from her share and the rest will be used for research.

Open church will be observed for the ceremony, scheduled for 2:30 p. m, with Rev. David N. Roller officiating for the double ring service.

Miss Lucille Hamilton will be the maid of honor and Miss Sally Reep the bridesmaid. For her flower girl she has chosen Pat Ellis. Edward Thomas will serve as best man for Mr. Haycook. George Slicker jr., Al Gerrick, Richard Glenn and Richard Marshall will usher the guests to their pews

Miss Ballentine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ballentine, 575 Bowman street, and Mr. Haycook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haycook, 152 Rae avenue.

Mrs. Friend Entertains

The Christian Service Guild of the First Evangelical United Brethren church met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. William Friend, 640 McPherson street. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Naomi Nicholson, Mrs. V. C. Stamets and Mrs. Wade Blauser.

Following a short business meeting Miss Mary Myrtle Yohn conducted the devotions and her theme was "Fellowship of Bridge Building."

A vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," was given by Mrs. Friend. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Naomi Johnson.

Mrs. Mabel Oyler, delegate to the convention held last month in Akron, reported to the group on the activities at the meeting.

A white elephant sale was conducted during the remainder of the evening. The August meeting will be a picnic, the time and place to be announced later.

Deems Reunion

The Deems reunion was held Sunday at North Lake Park with 43 members and two guests present. A picnic lunch was served at noon. The business meeting was conducted by the president, William Birmelin jr. The following officers were elected for next year: Floyd Smith, president; Clyde Oyster, vice president; Mrs. Floyd Smith, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs Lester Knapp, assistant secretary-treasurer. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the same place the second Sunday in July, 1949. The afternoon was spent socially.

Linnaeus Garden Club Has Luncheon

Mrs. M. T. Brinkerhoff, Penn avenue, was hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of the Linnaeus Garden club when they met for a combined luncheon and business meeting.

The luncheon table was decorated with an attractive arrangement of tuberous begonias and nasturtiums.

Mrs. H. H. Clingan opened the meeting by reading the Garden Club Prayer.

Following roll call a talk was given by Mrs. Charles Chew on "The Jewel Flower" and one by Mrs. Willis Linn on "Forget-me-nots of Alaska" and on the apple blossom, state flower of Michigan and Arkansas.

Mrs. S. E. Taylor discussed rhubarb and rhubarb juice in relation to the recent discovery that they improve the condition of teeth by counteractir the bad effects caused by soft drinks consumed.

Mrs. H. M. Spandau, bird chairman of the club ahd formerly bird chairman of the Garden Club of Ohio, gave the principal talk of the afternoon. The title was "These Are the Berries" and concerned berries consumed by birds.

Shrubs, bushes and trees to be used as protection for birds from cats were listed and described by Mrs. Spandau. Each type of foliage named was a berry-bearing one. Following her talk Mrs. Spandau distributed printed lists of the plants she had mentioned in her talk and classified them according to the time of year they bloom and are in fruit, the color of the berries, and the types of birds which feed on each berry.

Mrs. Linn, president of the club, conducted the business session during which plans were discussed for the club's herb garden. The president appointed a nominating committee to suggest a slate of new officers for the coming year. This group includes Mrs. A. G. Earnshaw, Mrs. L. S. Barr and Mrs. Clingan.

The next meeting will be July 27 at 3 p. m. at the Taylor cottage at Walton Lake. The husbands will join the members after the meeting for a picnic supper at the cottage.

Garden Study Club Convenes

The Garden Study club met recently at the home of Mrs. W. R. Burkhart, 187 Wood street, for a 1 o'clock salad luncheon. The tables were centered with garden flowers.

Mrs. Ralph Martin, president, conducted the business meeting.

The arrangement of the month was given by Mrs. George Hout. She chose a mixed arrangement of garden flowers for a dining room table. The paper of the afternoon was read by Mrs. Gilmore Hiett, on "Garden Friends and Foes."

Mrs. Burkhart gave the "something-out-of-the-ordinary" for this meeting, speaking on "Flora-Glow." This is a substance that acts on foliage of house plants to bring out the radiant luster and color. "Flora-Dye" is used to dip and rinse the plant leaves to match any color scheme desired.

Mrs. Jesse Clark and Mrs. H. D. Bishop gave the papers on "Fragrance In the Garden." Mrs. Clarence Lisle told the members about the meeting she attended as a guest of the Cottage Garden club on their anniversary.

The next meeting will be July 23, with Mrs. Blaine Johnson, 121 Dawson avenue, as hostess.

Norman Eugene Pores Return From Honeymoon to Reside Here

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN EUGENE PORE have returned from their wedding trip and are residing at 149 Pleasant avenue. Before her marriage Mrs. Pore was Frances Eileen Harter. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harter, 226 Lexington avenue, and Mr. Pore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pore, 313 Superior street.

The couple exchanged nuptial vows July 4 at 2:30 o'clock before the altar of the First Lutheran church Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell officiated for the ceremony which was performed before an altar decorated with palms, seven branch candelabra and two beauty baskets of mixed flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white tailored suit with navy and white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Norma Solomon, close friend of the bride, was maid of honor, attired in a pink tailored suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations tied with pink satin ribbons.

A program of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Clayson Bell with Mrs. Wanda Donnan as vocalist.

Mrs. Harter chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue and white print dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Pore was attired in a grey and white print dress with white accessories and wore gardenias.

Richard Pore, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were William Wise and George Knackstedt.

Following the service a reception was held for 75 guests at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Newlon, 149 Pleasant avenue. The home was decorated with two beauty baskets of pink and white flowers. Centering the serving table was a three tiered wedding cake and lighted tapers.

The bride was graduated from Mansfield Senior high school and is president of Nu Phi Mu sorority, Unit Three. She is employed as a deputy clerk in the Clerk of Court's office. Mr. Pore, a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school served two and a half years in the navy. He is employed at the Westinghouse Electric corporation.

Guests were in attendance from Columbus, Toledo, Prospect, Loudonville, Fredericktown, Bucyrus, Mt. Vernon and Mansfield.

Class of '28

The 1928 graduating class of Lucas high school observed its 20th anniversary last week with a basket picnic at South Park. Thirteen members of the class and their families, totaling forty persons, attended the affair. Mrs. Howard Hayward, Mrs. Merle Smart and Mrs. Don Kirkpatrick, all of Mansfield, served on the committee for the 1948 picnic. Next year's committee includes Miss Mabel Barr, Mansfield, and Mrs. Edna Schneider, Little Washington.

Noted Writer Explains How to Tell Man From Mouse

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK —(NS)— LADIES, THERE IS NOW A SIMPLE WAY TO TELL A MAN FROM A MOUSE.

The one in the necktie printed with inch-wide polka dots is a man.

It has nothing whatsoever to do with the standard ogle or wolf leer, but is a subtle something dreamed up by the nation's tailors to give our gents "a look that commands attention and respect."

The bold look is composed of such masculine nuances as to be almost invisible to the naked feminine eye.

It consists of such "rugged" (that's the tailors' word) stuff as handkerchieves with borders fully one and three-eighths inches wide and such "husky" goings-on as a shirt collar with the stitching a half instead of the usual eighth of an inch from the edge!

If these do not turn house-broken Herbert into a cross between Humphrey Bogart and McGrabb of the Northwest Mounted, he can add the bold look in socks.

The new sox will have wide ribbing. Clocks, if and when, will be of the grandfather variety.

If Herbert still looks a mite like Caspar Milquetoast, he can acquire the bold look in brogans, although they are apt to be hard on his bunions.

The bold look in shoes is "massive" with bull-dog toes and thick and "hefty" soles. Any ex-G. I. ought to feel at home in 'em.

Well, if the old man still doesn't look like the kind of guy who won't take "no" for an answer, maybe the bold-look hat will fix him up with a personality as aggressive as a huckster.

This hat, and it apparently is a very daring innovation in gents ready-to-wear, is a snap brim number in rich cinnamon brown with a black band.

What gives it the daring bold look is the binding of gun-metal grey.

This binding is barely visible on top of the brim. But underneath! Wow! It's five-eighths of an inch wide on the under part of that snap brim. Zowie!

All of these subtle touches, worn with the same tired old blue serge or that beat-up double-breasted gray flannel suit, are supposed to combine into a look "as virile as football, as masculine as the marine corps, as American as the Sunday comics."

Even gents' jewelry has the bold look this spring. And if Buster still bears no living resemblance to Richard the Lion Hearted, maybe a "wide slab of gold" in the form of a tie clasp or big, heavy gold cuff links will help. (Although vitamins might be cheaper.

Heavy gold link chains will be worn on keys, too, out of deference to the bold look.

The plaids in sports jackets are going to be so big and bold this season that it will take two men and a boy to wear a single pattern.

If all of these accessories fail to give old faithful a bold look, ladies, there is still one thing left: A blood transfusion.

Beal Home Scene of Meet

Mrs. Russell Beal, Possum Run road, was hostess recently to members of the Pleasant Valley Garden club for a dessert luncheon, served in the yard. Eleven were in attendance. Following the business session in charge of Mrs. Henry Huber, Mrs. Carl Johnson reported on conservation. Mrs. Lowell Bailet made the floral arrangement for the day which was discussed by the group.

The paper for the program was given by Mrs. Johnson, whose topic was "Tuberous Begonias".

The next meeting will be held July 23 at the home of Mrs Robert Paxton, 563 Yale Drive, at which time Mrs. Clarence Stuhldreher will be the guest speaker.

Horoscope

For Thursday, July 15.

While there are splendid auguries for substantial aid, preferment and tokens of appreciation and promotion from influential sources such must be built upon a basic foundation of industry, sustained interest and long-range plans and policies, in order to be assured of proper and far-reaching support All plans must be built upon solid ground and worked out with fidelity and astute tactics, well-organized and practically executed And this while heeding limitations, delays impediments, handicaps or static situations of stubborn nature. Perseverance wins against all odds.

For the Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is, may be given a splendid opportunity for putting into practice their practical ideas and plans, sound judgment, developed techniques and ability to put over difficult objectives when the going seems crystallized and hopeless, under a chain of delays, obstacles, frustrations and impediments But stubborn determination to "do or die" in the attempt is bound to attract substantial cooperation from influential quarters, ready with generous rewards for merit and quality Final rewards are well worth working for with might and main

This half ham is the ready-to-eat variety, so cold service is practical. The fat has been scored in diamond shapes, sprinkled with brown sugar, covered with orange marmalade and glazed in a hot oven (400°F.) for about 15 minutes. This short stay in the oven is only to dress up the ham with a glaze, so don't expect it to be hot. The garnish is a border of small individual jellied vegetable salads toppel with pimiento.

Ohio Crops Near Record

COLUMBUS — (U.P.) — Ohio farmers probably will harvest enough wheat and corn this year to set an all-time record, the federal bureau of agricultural economics and the Ohio agricultural experiment station reported yesterday.

The federal and state agencies said that as of July 1 the outlook for wheat and corn indicated the greatest crop in the state's history.

The crop survey estimated Ohio corn production as of July 1 at 197,478,000 bushels. The neaest the state's farms came to that figure since the government began compiling reliable statistics on crop production in 1866 was in 1942, when 182,000,000 bushels were harvested.

Wheat for 1948 was forecast at 61,178,000 bushels. That compared with the previous record year of 1918 when 58,000,000 bushels were threshed.

The crop report, coupled with predictions of bumper harvests throughout the nation, indicated a possible decline in favor of the housewife in beef and pork prices within 18 months or so, the time needed for price declines to be reflected in retail meat prices. Both the corn and wheat markets themselves have been sagging recently under the prospect of tremendous crops.

Smokers Face Higher Price

NEW YORK — (AP) — The possibility of an increase in cigarette prices was rumored in trade circles today as the time draws near for auctioning of the flue-cured tobacco crop.

Cigarette manufacturers have increased their prices only a cent a pack since 1937. The most recent increase was 25 cents a thousand—about half a cent a pack—in October, 1946.

Industry sources say that practically everything that goes into the cost of processing the "smokes" has increased.

Agreement Ends Strike of 'Captive' Coal Mines

Pact Averts Cut In Steel Production

40,000 Miners Return to Pits

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Danger of curtailment in steel production because of coal shortage was at an end today, following settlement of the strike in "captive" steel company coal mines.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough announced yesterday afternoon that an agreement had been reached.

Goldsborough said representatives of the steel industry and of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers had agreed to accept the same coal contract signed recently by the rest of the coal industry.

The judge told reporters there is one condition — the UMW agees to modify its union shop clause in the new agreement if the provision eventually is ruled illegal by the National Labor Relations board.

At his news conference Goldsborough said the 40,000 miners in the steel industry-owned "captive" pits would return to work today. They have been idle for a week.

The contract previously signed by the rest of the coal industry provides $1 a day wage increases and double the amount of money to be made available for the miners' welfare and pension fund. This royalty levy was raised from 10 cents to 20 cents per ton.

Goldsborough made his announcement only an hour before Lewis and the UMW were to make an answer in his court to a plea for a court order to end the strike. The request for the order was filed by Robert N. Denham, general counsel for the NLRB.

This plea followed filing of a complaint by Denham against Lewis and the miners charging them with an unfair labor practice.

Goldsborough said he expects the NLRB's injunction plea proceedings to be "disposed of without a trial."

The judge indicated that he does not expect any effort to push the NLRB's injunction proceedings since both sides have reached agreement.

Man Shot During Family Quarrel

BATAVIA — (AP) — Herman Blandford, 37, was shot and killed Tuesday during a family quarrel at nearby Amelia, and Clermont county Deputy Sheriff Clyde Dericks said the man's sister, Mrs. Lucille Gagon, was being held without charge in the case.

Dericks said Mrs. Gagon had made an oral statement that she shot her brother "when he came home drunk and threatened me."

Prosecutor Ray Bradford said a murder charge would be filed against Mrs. Gagon.

The world's largest city, so far as area is concerned, is believed to be the town of Kiruna, in Swedish Lapland, which received city privileges Jan. 1, 1948. Although it has only 18,000 inhabitants, it spreads over more ground than 18 times the area of New York City.

LIMA LADY LOSES 88½ POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Mrs. C. M. Wright, 124 West 5th St., loses weight without dieting.

"I have tried many reducing preparations but nothing ever helped me until I tried Rennel" writes Mrs. Wright. "Since I started taking Rennel I have eaten as much as I wanted and anything that I wanted yet I have lost weight and feel much better than I have in ten years. Before taking Rennel my excess weight kept me tired out all of the time. I am so happy that I tried Rennel because the other products that I have tried didn't help me at all. My druggist recommended Rennel to me and I wouldn't be without it."

Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple, go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough unsweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle, take just two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel, no starvation diet, no printed diet list to buy, no expensive vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry. —Adv.

Gas Almost Choked Him

"My stomach swelled with gas until I could hardly breathe," said one man living near here: "I couldn't sleep, in fact had horrible nights. Was always constipated. I got INNER-AID. Oh! what relief! It worked so much gas from me that my stomach reduced 4 inches. Can breathe freely again. Sleep soundly now. Bowels also have been given a Great Cleansing."

INNER-AID is the new mixture of 12 Juices from Nature's Herbs. It has relieved many people who had never been really helped before by any medicine. Taken shortly before meals it mixes with your food, thus eliminating the poisons that foster stomach trouble. It will cleanse the bowels, clear gas from stomach, enliven liver and remove old bile from the system. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug stores.—Adv.

Law Governs Rail Workers

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Railroad employes covered by the federal railway labor act are also subject to the state law regulating the hours of employment of women and minors, Atty. Gen. Hugh S. Jenkins ruled Tuesday.

Jenkins, in an opinion to State Industrial Relations Director W. J. Rogers, said that the federal and state codes are not in conflict. He explained that the railroads are engaged in interstate commerce within Ohio and therefore are subject to the state employment laws.

TINY FOOD TABLET WORKS WONDERS FOR FAT WOMEN

Yes, the Kyron Plan, the new food tablet way to reduce, will help you lose up to 7 lbs. first 7 days—or you pay nothing. If your excess weight is caused by over-eating (and not glandular), the Kyron Plan is designed to act three ways: (1) to help appease your hunger, to cut down your appetite automatically, yet you never feel hungry; (2) includes nutritious elements to help maintain your energy while reducing; (3) recommends in package many foods often falsely labeled in ordinary diets as "fattening." Kyron is endorsed by a nationally known physician and further certified by a noted pharmacal laboratory. Insured by world's largest insurance company.

Make This 7-Day No-Risk Test

Eat Kyron Food Tablets for 7 days; check your weight before and after using Kyron. If you're not 100% delighted with results, return empty package and we'll refund money.

Police Judge Pleads Guilty In $630,000 Embezzlement

NEWARK, N. J. — (AP) — Police Judge T. James Pellecchia jr. pleaded guilty Tuesday to embezzlement in a $630,000 shortage at the Columbus Trust company, where he is vice president and counsel.

Pellecchia told his questioners that he was $150,000 to $200,000 in the red with the bookmakers when he first began dipping into the bank funds.

It was nothing, he said, for him to lose five or six thousand dollars a week on the ponies. The embezzlement covered a period of about two and a half years.

State Banking Commissioner John Dickerson and Attorney General Van Riper explained that Pellecchia engineered his thefts by fictitious mortgages on apartment houses. They said some of the loans he got were as high as $50,000.

Pellecchia, they said, made the phony applications for mortgages with fictitious names. After the bank's real estate department had approved them, he would collect the checks and cash them by forging endorsements.

Pellecchia's brother, Ralph, was president of the bank and his 72-year-old father was chairman of the board. The father, Pellegrine Pellecchia, is a wealthy contractor.

Pellecchia was rated "the most eligible bachelor in northern New Jersey," where he is widely known. His wardrobe, which includes some 400 neckties, 15 suits, 18 pairs of shoes and a flock of sport coats, received nationwide publicity last year when he was picked as the best dressed judge in the country.

He was known as a judge who liked to wear bright neckties with his black robe in court.

Pellecchia had been making plans to run for city commissioner next spring and seemed assured of victory. He had long been active politically and was one of the most popular figures in New Jersey.

Landis Estate Gets $30,000

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— The estate of Actress Carole Landis will be enriched $30,000 when the court approves the property settlement of her divorce suit against her fourth husband, W. Horace Schmidlap.

Schmidlapp had signed the agreement and the actress was to have affixed her signature last Tuesday, the day after she committed suicide with an overdose of sleeping pills.

Schmidlapp let it be known yesterday he is willing to let the agreement stand. Attorney Jerry Giesler, who represented Miss Landis in the divorce action, said he would ask the court to approve it.

Forest Blaze Still Raging

HOUGHTON, Mich. — (AP) — Fire in the forest of Isle Royale continued to burn out of control today but was being confined largely to an 1,100-acre area between Lakes Desore and Siskiwit.

The national park service office here said the flames were not spreading unduly. Weather conditions were favorable to the fire fighters, 125 of whom were on duty. There was no wind yesterday, the air was humid and the sky partly overcast.

The park service hopes to have the blaze under control in a day or two.
